Totally Unofficial The Autobiography Of Raphael Lemkin:

Totally Unofficial Raphael Lemkin, 2013-06-24 Presents the never before published autobiography of Raphael Lemkin who immigrated to the U S during World War II and made it his life s work to fight genocide a term he coined with the might of the U N Genocide Convention Pioneers of Genocide Studies (Clt) Samuel Totten, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2002 New areas of research are not the result of a snap of the finger They are carved out of the marrow of human existence The study of genocide well illustrates this raw fact From the early efforts that emerged in the struggle against Nazism and over the past half century the field has now reached a point where there at least five genocide centers across the globe and well over one hundred Holocaust centers This work emerged out of an earlier effort at an oral history project one that would enable a new generation of scholars researchers and policy makers to assess the major foci of the field efforts to develop ways and means to intervene and prevent future genocides and review the successes and failures of the field The editors of Pioneers of Genocide Studies emphasize that contributors should approach the questions of greatest relevance in a personal way crafting a statement that reveals ones individual voice persuasions literary style scholarly perspectives and relevant details of ones life The book succeeds admirably in the above aims and in so doing epitomizes scholarly autobiographical writing at its best The book also includes the most important works by each author on the issue of genocide As a result the collective portrait enhances the usefulness of the volume for those new to the field Among the contributors are experts in the Armenian Bosnian Cambodian genocides as well as the Holocaust against the Jewish people The contributors are Rouben Adalian M Cherif Bassiouni Israel W Charney Vahakn Dadrian Helen Fein Barbara Harff David Hawk Herbert Hirsch Irving Louis Horowitz Richard Hovannisian Henry Huttenbach Leo Kuper Raphael Lemkin James E Mace Eric Markusen Robert Melson R J Rummel Roger W Smith Gregory H Stanton Ervin Staub Colin Tatz Yves Ternan and the co editors The work has been five years in the making and represents a high watermark in the reflections and self reflections on the comparative study of genocide Samuel Totten is professor of curriculum and instruction in the College of Education and Health Professions at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville He is the editor of First Person Accounts of Genocidal Acts and Century of Genocide Eyewitness Accounts and Critical Views and book review editor for the Journal of Genocide Research Steven Leonard Jacobs is associate professor and Aaron Aronov Chair of Judaic Studies in the department of religious studies at the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa He is the author of Shirot Bialik A New and Annotated Translation of Chaim Nachman Bialiks Epic Poems Raphael Lemkins Thoughts on Nazi Genocide Not Guilty and Contemporary Christian and Contemporary Jewish Religious Responses to the Shoah Confronting Evil James Waller, 2016-05-27 While it is true that genocide prevention is not what tends to land on the front pages of national newspapers today it is what prevents the worst headlines from ever being made Despite the post Holocaust consensus that Never Again would the world allow civilians to be victims of genocide the reality is closer to Again and Again As many as 170 million civilians across the world were victims of genocide and mass atrocity in the 20th century Now that we have entered the 21st century little light has been brought to that darkness as civilians still find themselves under brutal attack in South Sudan Burma Syria the Central African Republic Burundi Iraq and a score of other countries in the world beset by state fragility and extremist identity politics Drawing on over two decades of primary research and scholarship from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Confronting Evil Engaging Our Responsibility to Prevent Genocide is grounded in the belief that preventing mass atrocity is an achievable goal but only if we have the collective will to do so This groundbreaking book from one of the foremost leaders in the field presents a fascinating continuum of research informed strategies to prevent genocide from ever taking place to prevent further atrocities once genocide is occurring and to prevent future atrocities once a society has begun to rebuild after genocide With remarkable insight Dr James Waller challenges each of us to accept our responsibilities as global citizens in whichever role and place we find ourselves and to think critically about one of the world's most pressing human rights issues in which there are no sidelines only sides

Rain of Ash Ari Joskowitz, 2023-03-14 A major new history of the genocide of Roma and Jews during World War II and their entangled quest for historical justice Jews and Roma died side by side in the Holocaust yet the world did not recognize their destruction equally In the years and decades following the war the Jewish experience of genocide increasingly occupied the attention of legal experts scholars educators curators and politicians while the genocide of Europe's Roma went largely ignored Rain of Ash is the untold story of how Roma turned to Jewish institutions funding sources and professional networks as they sought to gain recognition and compensation for their wartime suffering Ari Joskowitz vividly describes the experiences of Hitler's forgotten victims and charts the evolving postwar relationship between Roma and Jews over the course of nearly a century During the Nazi era Jews and Roma shared little in common besides their simultaneous persecution Yet the decades of entwined struggles for recognition have deepened Romani Jewish relations which now center not only on commemorations of past genocides but also on contemporary debates about antiracism and Zionism Unforgettably moving and sweeping in scope Rain of Ash is a revelatory account of the unequal yet necessary entanglement of Jewish and Romani quests for historical justice and self representation that challenges us to radically rethink the way we remember the Holocaust

key theories goals objectives and the research base Many also provide a set of recommendations for adapting and or strengthening a particular model program or the study of a specific social issue In the annotated bibliographies accompanying the essays authors include those works that are considered classics and foundational They also include research and practice oriented articles Due to space constraints the annotated bibliographies generally offer a mere sampling of what is available on each approach program model or concern The book is composed of twenty two chapters and addresses an eclectic array of topics including but not limited to the following the history of teaching and learning about social issues George S Counts and social issues propaganda analysis Harold Rugg s textbook program Hunt and Metcalf s Reflective Thinking and Social Understanding Model Donald Oliver James Shaver and Fred Newmann s Public Issues Model Massialas and Cox Inquiry Model the Engle Ochoa Decisionmaking Model human rights education Holocaust education education for sustainability economic education global education multicultural education James Beane s middle level education integrated curriculum model Science Technology Society STS addressing social issues in the English classroom genocide education interdisciplinary approaches to incorporating social issues into the curriculum critical pedagogy academic freedom and teacher education Enteignet, Vertrieben, Ermordet Dominik J. Schaller, 2004 Totally

Unofficial Facing History and Ourselves, 2007-11 Facing History and Ourselves introduces its first book in the Making History Series Created for classroom use this groundbreaking volume highlights the story of Raphael Lemkin a lawyer of Polish Jewish decent who driven by a sense of moral duty and outraged by injustice helped to facilitate the establishment of the Genocide Convention and set out guidelines for the international prevention and punishment for the crime of genocide After studying the massacres of the Armenians in the Ottoman Empire Lemkin struggled to find a way to use the law to prevent collective violence To support his legal arguments Lemkin coined the word genocide in 1943 How did a new word change the way that people thought about a problem Totally Unofficial explores the spectacular history of one man s work and an international community s need to continue in his footsteps A Quest for Belonging Hans-Lukas Kieser, 2007

Genocide Before the Holocaust Cathie Carmichael, 2009 This innovative and ambitious work is a systematic examination of the many instances of genocide that took place in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century centuries that were precursors to the Holocaust There is an appalling symmetry to the many instances of genocide that the late nineteenth and early twentieth century world witnessed In the wake of the break up of the old Hapsburg Ottoman and Romanov empires minority populations throughout those lands were persecuted expelled and eliminated The reason for the deplorable decimations of communities Jews in Imperial Russia and Ukraine Ottoman Assyrians Armenians and Muslims from the Caucasus and Balkans was Cathie Carmichael contends located in the very roots of the new nation states arising from the imperial rubble The question of who should be included in the nation and which groups were now to be deemed suspect or alien was one that preoccupied and divided Europe long before the Holocaust Examining all the major eliminations of communities in Europe up until 1941 Carmichael shows how hotbeds of nationalism racism and developmentalism resulted in devastating manifestations of genocidal ideology Dramatic perceptive and poignant this is the story of disappearing civilizations precursors to one of humanity s worst atrocities and part of the legacy of genocide in the modern world

Evoking Genocide Adam Jones,2009 Evoking Genocide compiles more than sixty short essays written by leading scholars and activists in the field of genocide studies These authors pay eloquent tribute to the works of art and media that influenced their engagement with genocide and crimes against humanity The subjects include books and stories films songs drawings documents monuments sculptures personal testimonies and even a Lego set In an accessible and often deeply personal way contributors explore their own relationships with the works in question Edited by Adam Jones recently selected as one of fifty key thinkers in Holocaust and genocide studies Evoking Genocide makes an important contribution to the study of the art and culture of mass atrocity The North Carolina Historical Review ,2019 The Genocide Studies

Reader Samuel Totten,Paul Robert Bartrop,2009 The reader covers key aspects of the most complex issues of genocide studies vis vis the definition of genocide theories of genocide the prevention and intervention of genocide and the denial of genocide The Man who Invented "genocide" James Joseph Martin,1984 The Nazi Hunters Andrew Nagorski,2016-05-10 More than seven decades after the end of the Second World War the era of the Nazi Hunters is drawing to a close Their saga is finally told in this deep and sweeping account of a relentless search for justice that began in 1945 and is only now coming to an end The Washington Post After the Nuremberg trials and the start of the Cold War most of the victors in World War II lost interest in prosecuting Nazi war criminals Absorbing Kirkus Reviews and fascinating Library Journal The Nazi Hunters focuses on the men and women who refused to allow their crimes to be forgotten The Nazi Hunters reveals the experiences of the young American prosecutors in the Nuremberg and Dachau trials Benjamin Ferencz and William Denson the Polish investigating judge Jan Sehn who handled the case of Auschwitz commandant Rudolf H ss the Mossad agent Rafi Eitan who was in charge of the Israeli team that nabbed Eichmann and Eli Rosenbaum who sought to expel war criminals who were living in the United States But some of the Nazi hunters most controversial actions involved the more ambiguous cases such as former UN Secretary General Kurt Waldheim s attempt to cover up his wartime history Or the fate of concentration camp guards who have lived into their nineties long past the time when reliable eyewitnesses could be found to pinpoint their exact roles The story of the Nazi hunters is coming to a natural end It was unprecedented in so many ways especially the degree to which the initial impulse of revenge was transformed into a struggle for justice The Nazi hunters have transformed our fundamental notions of right and wrong and Andrew Nagorski s vivid reader friendly account of how justice was done is comprehensively informative and a highly involving read The Wall Street Journal

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1990 The Jewish Digest Bernard Postal,1982 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,1994 Genocide in the Middle East Hannibal Travis,2010 Genocide in the Middle East describes the genocide of the Armenians Greeks and Assyrians of the Ottoman Empire in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries of the Kurds and other persons living under Saddam Hussein in northern Iraq in the late 1980s and of the Dinka Nuba Fur Masalit and Zaghawa peoples of Sudan from the 1970s to the present It situates these crimes in their historical context as outgrowths of intolerant religious traditions imperialism and the rise of the nation state Cold War insurgencies and counterinsurgencies and the global competition for resources and markets at the expense of indigenous peoples This requires a more thorough investigation of the case law on genocide than has been attempted in the literature on genocide to date including detailed accounts of the prosecutions of the leaders of the Ottoman Empire after World War I of Saddam Hussein and other Iraqi officials after Operation Iraqi Freedom and of President Omar Hassan al Bashir and other leaders of Sudan by the International Criminal Court Finally the book explores emerging problems of genocidal terrorism cultural genocide and structural genocide due to starvation disease and displacement The field of genocide studies has grown rapidly in recent years fueled by interest in the Armenian genocide the wars in the former Yugoslavia and Iraq and the widespread massacres in southern Sudan and Darfur While several comparative studies of the Armenian genocide the Holocaust and other genocides have been published none of them focuses on genocide in the Middle East and North Africa since the nineteenth century This book provides a comprehensive history of genocide in the broader Islamic world with a particular focus on the twentieth century It is of interest to general readers undergraduates graduate students academics journalists and legal professionals and will be useful as a text for courses on International Law International Criminal Law Law and Religion Middle East Studies International Relations Public Policy Criminal Justice or World History The comprehensive research is breath takingly evident This historical account of the lesser known genocidal conflicts is incredibly revealing Perhaps the best thing one could say about this book is that the familiar adage Those who ignore history are bound to repeat it reverberates throughout this intensely engaging volume ASIL UN21 Newsletter This ambitious book in its research and coverage tells a sorry tale of mankind's inhumanity and intolerance over millennia of genocidal deeds and rhetoric A fast moving narrative reaches from biblical times to Darfur describing tragic events accompanied by selective quotations from their participants and observers Genocide may be a recently invented term but its occurrences based on a variety of causes and reasons seem to have been a deep part of the human experience of group interactions Henry Steiner Professor of Law Emeritus Harvard Law School and co author International Human Rights in Context Law Politics Morals Oxford and New York Oxford University Press 3d ed 2007 In Genocide in the Middle East Hannibal Travis breaks new ground in genocide studies by unveiling the full panoply of genocidal processes in the Middle East and West Asia as no previous scholar has But he does much more in terms of its twentieth and twenty first century coverage this is simply the most expansive detailed and up to date history of genocide we possess Adam Jones Associate Professor Political Science University of British Columbia Okanagan and author of Genocide A Comprehensive Introduction London Routledge 2006 Professor Travis study of genocide and the contribution he makes for a better understanding of the Assyrian one is an invaluable event This is not a book of sociology but of historical review and analysis As such it deserves the highest of accolades Journal of Assyrian Academic Studies Recueil Des Arrêts, Avis Consultatifs Et Ordonnances International Court of Justice,2015
