Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography Ingham, Mark Bruce Nigel, Milic, Nela, Kantas, Vasileios, Andersdotter, Sara, Lowe, Paul, 2023-02-17 Autobiographical memory and photography have been inextricably linked since the first photographs appeared during the 19th century These links have often been described from each other's discipline in ways that often have led to misunderstandings about the complex relationships between them The Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography covers many aspects of the multiple relationships between autobiographical memory and photography such as the idea that memory and photography can be seen as forms of mental time and the effect photography has on autobiographical memory Covering key topics such as identity trauma and remembrance this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals sociologists psychologists artists researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students

Signs and Wonders Ellen T. Armour, 2016-03-15 We are told modernity's end will destabilize familiar ways of knowing doing and being but are these changes we should dread or celebrate Four significant events and the iconic images that represent them catalyze this question the consecration of openly gay Episcopalian bishop Gene Robinson the mistreatment of prisoners at Abu Ghraib prison the politicization of the death of Terri Schiavo and the disastrous response to Hurricane Katrina Framed by an original appropriation of Michel Foucault and drawing on resources in visual culture theory and the history of photography Ellen T Armour explores the anxieties passions and power dynamics bound up in the photographic representation and public reception of these events Together these phenomena expose modernity's benevolent and malevolent disruptions and reveal the systemic fractures and fissures that herald its end for better and for worse In response to these signs and wonders Armour lays the groundwork for a theology and philosophy of life better suited to our post modern moment one that owns up to the vulnerabilities that modernity sought to disavow and better enables us to navigate the ethical issues we now confront

Sensational Religion Sally Promey, 2014-06-24 The result of a collaborative multiyear project this groundbreaking book explores the interpretive worlds that inform religious practice and derive from sensory phenomena Under the rubric of making sense the studies assembled here ask How have people used and valued sensory data How have they shaped their material and immaterial worlds to encourage or discourage certain kinds or patterns of sensory experience How have they framed the sensual capacities of images and objects to license a range of behaviors including iconoclasm censorship and accusations of blasphemy or sacrilege Exposing the dematerialization of religion embedded in secularization theory editor Sally Promey proposes a fundamental reorientation in understanding the personal social political and cultural work accomplished in religion's sensory and material practice Sensational Religion refocuses scholarly attention on the robust material entanglements often discounted by modernity's metaphysic and on their inextricable connections to human bodies behaviors affects and beliefs

Photographic Returns Shawn Michelle Smith, 2020-01-03 In Photographic Returns Shawn

Michelle Smith traces how historical moments of racial crisis come to be known photographically and how the past continues to inhabit punctuate and transform the present through the photographic medium in contemporary art Smith engages photographs by Rashid Johnson Sally Mann Deborah Luster Lorna Simpson Jason Lazarus Carrie Mae Weems Taryn Simon and Dawoud Bey among others Each of these artists turns to the past whether by using nineteenth century techniques to produce images or by re creating iconic historic photographs as a way to use history to negotiate the present and to call attention to the unfinished political project of racial justice in the United States By interrogating their use of photography to recall revise and amplify the relationship between racial politics of the past and present Smith locates a temporal recursivity that is intrinsic to photography in which images return to haunt the viewer and prompt reflection on the present and an imagination of a more just future

Relics of War Jennifer Raab, 2024-09-10 How a single haunting image tells a story about violence mourning and memory In 1865 Clara Barton traveled to the site of the notorious Confederate prison camp in Andersonville Georgia where she endeavored to name the missing and the dead The future founder of the American Red Cross also collected their relics whittled spoons woven reed plates a piece from the prison s dead line a tattered Bible and brought them back to her Missing Soldiers Office in Washington DC presenting them to politicians journalists and veterans families before having them photographed together in an altar like arrangement Relics of War reveals how this powerful image produced by Mathew Brady opens a window into the volatile relationship between suffering martyrdom and justice in the wake of the Civil War Jennifer Raab shows how this photograph was a crucial part of Barton s efforts to address the staggering losses of a war in which nearly half of the dead were unnamed and from which bodies were rarely returned home for burial The Andersonville relics gave form to these absent bodies offered a sacred site for grief and devotion mounted an appeal on behalf of the women and children left behind and testified to the crimes of war The story of the photograph illuminates how military sacrifice was racialized as political reconciliation began and how the stories of Black soldiers and communities were silenced Richly illustrated Relics of War vividly demonstrates how one photograph can capture a precarious moment in history serving as witness advocate evidence and memory

Odd Affinities Elizabeth Abel, 2024-04-19 For decades Virginia Woolf s work has been seen as part of the women s writing canon Elizabeth Abel extracts Woolf from this women s tradition to position her in a different light one that shows Woolf s role in a far reaching modernist genealogy Abel traces the strong echoes of Woolf in the work of four major writers from diverse cultural contexts Nella Larsen James Baldwin Roland Barthes and W G Sebald As Abel shows what Woolf called the odd affinities between herself and these successors give us an altogether different picture of the development of transnational modernism with Woolf as a shadowy but important connection among disparate writers By charting new pathways of twentieth century literary transmission Odd Affinities will appeal to students and scholars working in New Modernist studies comparative literature and African American studies

Margaret Wells' Picture Book Margaret Bruce Wells,Heulwen Williams,1967* Eudora Welty Natasha D. Trethewey,Reynolds Price,2019 Eudora Welty s Photographs originally published in 1989 serves as the definitive book of the critically acclaimed writer's photographs. Her camera's viewfinder conveys deep compassion and her artist's sensibilities. Eudora Welty's Photographs is a deeply felt documentation of 1930s Mississippi taken by a keenly observant photographer who showed the human side of her subjects. Also included in the book are photographs from Welty's travels to New York, New Orleans, South Carolina, Mexico, and Europe in the 1930s, 40s, and 50s. The photographs in this edition are new digital scans of Welty's original negatives, restoring the images to their original glory. It also features sixteen additional images, several of which were selected by Welty for her 1936 photography exhibit in New York City and have never before been reproduced for publication, along with a resonant foreword by Pulitzer Prize-winning writer and Mississippi native Natasha Trethewey.
