Michael Hall, Stephen J. Page, 2016-09-13 Asia is regarded as the fastest growing area for international and domestic tourism in the world today and over the next 20 years Given the economic social and environmental importance of tourism in the region there is a need for a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies in tourism in the region and the major factors that are affecting tourism development both now and in the foreseeable future This Handbook provides a contemporary survey of the region and its continued growth and development as a key destination and generator of tourism which is marked by a high proportion of intra regional travel The book is divided into five sections This first section provides an introduction to the region and context to the nationally focused chapters The next three sections are then broadly based on the three UNWTO Asian regions South East Asia South and Central Asia and East and North East Asia providing readers with a valuable snapshot of tourism at various scales and from various approaches and positions The concluding section considers future prospects for tourism in Asia The handbook is interdisciplinary in coverage and is also international in scope through its authorship and content It presents a range of perspectives and understanding of the processes and forces that are shaping tourism in this fascinating and dynamic region that is one of the focal points of global tourism This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism in the growth region of Asia now and in the future

The Tourism-Disaster-Conflict Nexus Andreas Neef, Jesse Hession Grayman, 2018-11-12 Tourism is often seen as the world's peace industry Yet while tourism may play a major role in post conflict and post disaster recovery the sector can also be a trigger of crisis and disaster This book examines the complex linkages between tourism disaster and conflict through a series of case studies drawn mainly from the Asia Pacific region Disappearing Destinations Andrew L. Jones, Michael R. Phillips, 2009-12-01 Providing a thorough examination of the threats posed to destinations by tourism this comprehensive text discusses how popular and fragile destinations such as the Great Barrier Reef could become severely damaged and forced to close to tourists if current tourism trends continue The consequences of tourism growth predicted changes and management and policy responses are reviewed The book will explore tourism in the context of climate change and vulnerable environments exploring the situation at local level and in a wider perspective using international case studies throughout and provide

Tourism and Leisure Mobilities Jillian Rickly, Kevin Hannam, Mary Mostafanezhad, 2016-07-15 This book reframes tourism as well as leisure within mobilities studies to challenge the limitations that dichotomous understandings of home away work leisure and host guest bring A mobilities approach to tourism and leisure encourages us to think beyond the mobilities of tourists to ways in which tourism and leisure experiences bring other mobilities into sync or disorder and as a result re conceptualizes social theory The proposed anthology stretches across academic disciplines and fields of study to illustrate the advantages of multi disciplinary conversation and in so doing it challenges how we approach studies of movement based phenomena and the concept of scale Part One examines the ways in which mobility informs and is informed by leisure from everyday practices to leisure inspired mobile lifestyles Part Two investigates individuals and communities that become entrepreneurial in the face of changing tourism contexts and reflects on the performance of work through multiple mobilities Part Three turns to issues of development with attention to the cultural politics that frame development encounters in the context of tourism The varied ways that people move into and out of development projects is mediated by geopolitical discourses that can both challenge and perpetuate geographic imaginations of tourism destinations

Recentring Tourism Geographies in the 'Asian Century' Harnng Luh Sin, Mary Mostafanezhad, Joseph M. Cheer, 2022-04-19 This book considers what the transition into the Asian Century means for some of the most urgent issues in the world today such as sustainable development human rights gender equality and environmental change The book critiques Anglo Western centrism in tourism theory and calls on tourism scholars to make radical shifts toward more inclusive epistemology and praxis From the British Century of the 1800s to the American Century of the 1900s to the contemporary Asian Century tourism geographies are deeply entangled in broader shifts in geopolitical power In the shadow of the COVID 19 pandemic the significance of shifts in tourism geographies and the themes addressed in this volume are more urgent than ever That the world faces increasing turmoil is abundantly clear Yet amidst the disruption to the everyday it is hope and compassion but also political economic restructuring that is needed to reset the tourism industry in more sustainable equitable and ethical directions In no uncertain terms the pandemic has forever changed the tourism industry as the world once knew it This book therefore sets out to collectively build on the momentum of the inclusive scholarship that Critical Tourism Studies Asia Pacific is renowned for while also asking readers to pause and reflect on the possibilities and challenges of tourism in a post pandemic Asian Century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies

the past decade there have been an increasing number of publications that have analysed and critiqued the potential of tourism to be a mechanism for poverty reduction in less economically developed countries LEDCs This book showcases work by established and emerging researchers that provides new thinking and tests previously made assumptions providing an essential guide for students practitioners and academics This book advances our understanding of the changes and ways forward in the field of sustainable tourism development Five main themes are illustrated throughout the book 1 measuring impacts of tourism on poverty 2 the need to evaluate whether interventions that aim to reduce poverty are effective 3 how unbalanced power relations and weak governance can undermine efforts 4 the importance of the private sector s use of pro poor business practices and 5 the value of using multidisciplinary and multi method research approaches Furthermore the book shows that academic research findings can be used practically in destinations and how practitioners can benefit from sharing their experiences with academic scholars This book was based on a special issue and various articles from the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

Authenticating Ethnic Tourism Philip Feifan Xie,2011 This book represents a shifting of emphasis away from the discourse of authenticity to the process of authenticating ethnic tourism It focuses upon what authentication is how it works who is involved and what the problems are in the process By using the study of folk villages on Hainan Island China the book suggests that authenticity evolves from a static into a more dynamic concept which can be formulated according to the different stages of development relating to all the stakeholders involved Authentication is an interactive process in which a balance of forces defines a state of equilibrium The book uncovers some interesting findings that will significantly contribute to the literature on ethnic tourism in developing areas Finally here is a way to move beyond old debates about authenticity in tourism studies with a pragmatic useful approach for analyzing authentication processes Xie s models of stakeholders interactions and the paradoxes encountered in ethnic tourism development have worldwide application for academics and stakeholders themselves Margaret Swain University of California USA

Rethinking Asian Tourism Victor T. King, Ploysri Porananond, 2014-10-16 Rethinking Asian Tourism addresses some of the latest developments in on going tourism research in Southeast Asia and the wider Asia region encompassing in geographical terms Thailand Vietnam Indonesia the Philippines Malaysia Hong Kong Japan and Korea It examines many of the emerging as well as established themes and issues in Asian tourism and promotes the development of critical scholarship within Asia to overcome Anglo Western ethnocentrism in tourism studies of the region There is some attention to such familiar concepts as authenticity commoditisation culture heritage and hosts and guests but more especially to the diversification of phenomena which traditionally would not have been included within the parameters of tourism studies retirees and long stays gastronomy family based leisure popular culture and local branding Above all the book addresses and develops a conceptual understanding from a multidisciplinary perspective of the character experiences encounters perceptions and motivations of local national and intra regional tourism rather than basing concepts perspectives emphases and analyses on Western Asian interactions and on transformations in the West In this respect it encourages a shift in emphasis towards Asianising our understanding of Asian tourism This is one of the first volumes on Asian tourism written primarily by Asians and as such provides them with the opportunity to express their concerns interests and priorities rather than depending on the analyses and interpretations of those from outside the region It also enables a deconstruction of the field of tourism studies acknowledging that it is an open ended shifting fluid and complex category of encounters and events generated by the processes of physical mobility

Small Places, Large Issues Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2015-08-20 This introduction to social and cultural anthropology has become a modern classic revealing the rich global variation in social life and culture across the world Presenting a clear overview of anthropology it focuses on central topics such as kinship ethnicity ritual and political systems offering a wealth of examples that demonstrate the enormous scope of anthropology and the importance of a comparative perspective Unlike other texts on the subject Small Places Large Issues incorporates the anthropology of complex modern societies Using reviews of key works to illustrate his argument Thomas Hylland Eriksen's lucid and accessible overview remains an established introductory text in anthropology This fourth edition is updated throughout and increases the emphasis on the interdependence of human worlds It incorporates recent debates and controversies ranging from globalisation and migration research to problems of cultural translation and discusses the challenges of interdisciplinarity in a lucid way

Current Issues in Transitional Justice Natalia Szablewska, Sascha-Dominik Bachmann, 2014-10-27 This volume is an interdisciplinary scholarly resource bringing together contributions from writers experienced academics and practitioners working in fields such as human rights humanitarian law public policy psychology cultural and peace studies and earth jurisprudence This collection of essays presents the most up to date knowledge and status of the field of transitional justice and also highlights the emerging debates in this area which are often overseen and underdeveloped in the literature The volume provides a wide coverage of the arguments relating to controversial issues emanating from different regions of the world The book is divided into four parts which groups different aspects of the problems and issues facing transitional justice as a field and its processes and mechanisms more specifically Part I concentrates on the traditional means and methods of dealing with past gross abuses of power and political violence In this section the authors also expand and often challenge the ways that these processes and mechanisms are conceptualised and introduced Part II provides a forum for the contributors to share their first hand experiences of how traditional and customary mechanisms of achieving justice can be effectively utilised Part III includes a collection of essays which challenges existing transitional justice models and provides new lenses to examine the formal and traditional processes and mechanisms

It aims to expose insufficiencies and some of the inherent practical and jurisprudential problems facing the field Finally Part IV looks to the future by examining what remedies can be available today for abuses of rights of the future generations and those who have no standing to claim their rights such as the environment Modern Day Slavery and Orphanage

Tourism Joseph M Cheer, Leigh Mathews, Kathryn E van Doore, Karen Flanagan, 2019-11-25 While appealing to the desire of tourists and volunteers to do good while travelling underlining orphanage tourism is the fact that the vast majority of children over 80% in orphanages and allied care institutions are not orphans Instead children are often placed in institutions due to poverty and hardship and as victims of human trafficking The first of its kind this book highlights exploratory research that examines the links between modern slavery practices and orphanage tourism Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia Robert W. Hefner, 2018-01-03 Few countries as culturally rich politically pivotal and naturally beautiful as Indonesia are as often misrepresented in global media and conversation Stretching 3 400 miles east to west along the equator Indonesia is the fourth most populous country in the world and home to more than four hundred ethnic groups and several major world religions This sprawling Southeast Asian nation is also the world's most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy Although in recent years the country has experienced serious challenges with regard to religious harmony its trillion dollar economy is booming and its press and public sphere are among the most vibrant in Asia A land of cultural contrasts contests and contradictions this ever evolving country is today rising to even greater global prominence even as it redefines the terms of its national religious and civic identity The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia offers an overview of the modern making and contemporary dynamics of culture society and politics in this powerful Asian nation It provides a comprehensive survey of key issues in Indonesian politics economics religion and society It is divided into six sections organized as follows Cultural Legacies and Political Junctures Contemporary Politics and Plurality Markets and Economic Cultures Muslims and Religious Plurality Gender and Sexuality Indonesia in an Age of Multiple Globalizations Bringing together original contributions by leading scholars of Indonesia in law political science history anthropology sociology religious studies and gender studies this Handbook provides an up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous exploration of Indonesia It will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Indonesian politics economics religion and society in an accessible format Changing Practices of Tourism Stakeholders in Covid-19 Affected Destinations Erdinç Çakmak, Rami K. Isaac, Richard Butler, 2023-02-21 This book employs epistemological methodological and discursive approaches to explore the practices of tourism stakeholders in Covid 19 affected destinations and to understand and explain their everyday real time doings and sayings It discusses the changing practices of tourists and stakeholders at both micro and meso levels and provides a range of contexts and destination case studies offering insights into supply and demand The issues examined in the volume will have continued implications for further study of the relationships between tourism crises pandemics and global travel It will be a useful resource for researchers and students in tourism studies geography politics and policy as well as sociology history crisis management and development studies
