Toward a Christian Theology of Religious Pluralism Jacques Dupuis, 1997 The results from a lifetime of study reflection and experience in both Europe and Asia is this comprehensive examination of Christian theological understandings of world religious pluralism Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Christianity and the Religions Jacques Dupuis, 2002 In this incisive and important volume Jacques Dupuis offers new insights on the most important issue facing Christian theology today giving an account of Christian faith as Christians go more deeply along the road of dialogue and collaboration with the followers of other religious traditions His task is to square a dogmatic circle How does one do justice to the Gospel claim that Jesus the Christ is the final and universal savior of all humankind in every age while also doing justice to the experience that truth grace holiness and power are experienced in other religious traditions In the first six chapters Dupuis reviews the history of the Western Christian tradition s teaching on other religious Ways through the breakthrough at Vatican Council II In chapters 7 and 8 he reviews the critical issues of uniqueness of Christ and Christian proposals to account for the mediation of salvation in other religious Ways He discusses also the relationship between the Reign of God the Church and the Religions In chapter 9 he explores the nature and role of dialogue in a pluralistic society In chapter 10 offers sage reflections on interreligious prayer

The Myth of Christian Uniqueness John Hick, Paul F. Knitter, 2005-01-25 A new model of Christian theology the pluralistic model is taking shape moving beyond the traditional models of exclusivism Christianity as the only true religion and inclusivism Christianity as the best religion toward a view that recognizes the possibility of many valid religions In this volume a widely representative group of eminent Christian theologians Protestant and Catholic male and female from East and West First and Third Worlds explores genuinely new attitudes toward other believers and traditions expanding and refining the discussion and debate over pluralistic theology Contributors are Gordon D Kaufman John Hick Langdon Gilkey Wilfred Cantwell Smith Stanley J Samartha Raimundo Panikkar Seiichi Yagi Rosemary Radford Ruether Marjorie Jewitt Suchocki Aloysius Pieris Tom F Driver and Paul F Knitter

Encountering Religious Pluralism Harold Netland, 2001-08-14 Harold Netland traces the emergence of the pluralistic ethos that challenges Christian faith and mission interacting heavily with philosopher John Hick and providing a framework for developing a comprehensive evangelical theology of religions The Pluralism of Paul Knitter and the Pluralistic Inclusivism of Jacques Dupuis James Shyamol Gomes, 2010 Acknowledging the contemporary challenges of religious pluralism this study emerges from the following new situations and the experiences of the diversity of religions and cultures There has been renewed discussion on Christianity s relation to other religious traditions We cannot deny also the transforming effect of Vatican II and the renewed importance of the presence of truth and holiness in other faiths In this situation the manyness of religious ways at the Christian doorsteps and theologians are seeking how to make sense of these other religious paths The place and role of Christianity in the midst of many religious ways demand serious Christian commitment and renewed theological reflection This study is inspired by the publications of Paul Knitter's pluralism and Jacques Dupuis inclusive pluralism to continue to wrestle with the question of God's one saving plan for all and Christianity's relation with religious others They are calling for a greater sensitivity toward an urgent attention to and a serious dialogue with the diverse religious and cultural realities of Asia or other parts of the world The author shows that Knitter develops a theology of religious form the pluralist position 1 a move away from insistence on the superiority or finality of Christ and Christianity and 2 toward a recognition of the independent validity of other religious ways By contrast Dupuis pluralistic inclusivism upholds both 1 the universal constitutive character of the Jesus Christ event in the order of salvation and 2 the positive saving significance of the religious within the single manifold plan of God for humankind

Shenk, Richard J. Plantinga, 2016-10-11 Over the past two centuries the Christian faith has spread to all continents Although more global than ever Christians are religious minorities in most societies Religious freedom is hardly universal In the past fifty years millions of people have been uprooted from their traditional homelands in Asia Africa and Latin America Some have emigrated to Western Europe and North America The West has become the scene of cultural linguistic and religious variety on a scale unimaginable in 1900 Today the full range of faiths and religious practices from all continents are present in Europe and North America Christians are challenged to come to terms with this changed situation These developments have intensified religious plurality Christians all over the world are being urged to understand and engage with this new situation This volume highlights this new reality and specifies some sources for engagement not least among them the Judeo Christian scriptures fundamental to all Christianities that emerged out of religious plural contexts On the basis of their faith in the Triune God disclosed in this text all followers of Jesus Christ must interact with these opportunities in today's radically context sensitive world Trinity and Religious Pluralism Veli-matti Kärkkäinen, 2017-09-28 The doctrine of the Trinity is one of the most distinguishing marks of Christian faith This is the first book to present an overview of the role of the Trinity in Christian theology in relation to religious pluralism and other religions Approaching the study of the relationship between Christianity and other religions from the perspective of the Trinity this book surveys all the major contributions to the topic by leading theologians at the international and ecumenical level Veli Matti Kärkkäinen points to future challenges and areas in need of development examining in detail a case study exploring how the Catholic Church has responded to Islam from the perspective of the Trinity Students of theology and religious studies will find this an invaluable text for courses that discuss religious pluralism and Christianity's relation to other religions. To Unite the Scattered Children of God Stephen Finlan, 2022-11-07. To Unite the Scattered Children of God is an accessible exploration of hope for the spiritual uniting of humankind in worship and in other ways from Isaiah on down to present times. Several prophets shared this hope. Many nations shall join themselves to the Lord on that day and shall be my people. Zech 2:11. To an even greater degree, Jesus set in motion a universalizing power. Jesus and Paul inspired hope for the uniting of Jews, Samaritans, and Gentiles into one fold in the unity of the faith. The book also builds upon the work of Teilhard de Chardin regarding the convergence of the human race under the spiritual influence of Christ, the omega point of evolution. Insights from pneumatology, process theology, personalism, interfaith discussions, and world peace advocacy add to the discussion.

No Other Name? Paul F. Knitter, 1985-01-01. Mission Shaped by Promise Jukka A. Kääriäinen, 2012-10-03. Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition, this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous, constructive approach toward the religious other. In its construction of a Lutheran missiology, it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition: the gospel as promise, the law/gospel distinction, a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled, and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God. The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator, the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy, and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form: the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue. Such a view of mission, shaped by promise, offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God.

Theology of

Religions Eugene F. Gorski, 2008 What should Catholics and indeed all followers of Jesus think about the other great religions of the world Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Islam Zoroastrianism Jainism Daoism Sikhism Shinto Might it be that the one true God is operative in these other religions working out the divine plan of salvation Or are they hindrances to God's plan What in fact is the relationship of Christianity to the other religions These are some of the questions dealt with in this book On the basis of an historical and phenomenological study of the world religions this book examines what the scriptures tradition and the teaching of the Catholic Church have to say about the ultimate meaning and value of the non Christian religions and how Catholics are to relate to the adherents of the other religions with understanding and appreciation Locating the historical origins of the world religions tracing their historical development observing the experiential phenomena from which they arise seeking to identify elements that unify them as well as pondering the questions that become evident as the result of such a study these procedures of historical and phenomenological analysis deal with issues of great significance and facilitate the author's search for and interpretation of the strictly theological data that disclose the ultimate significance of the non Christian religions Readers will appreciate this comprehensive work that reflects from a Christian Catholic point of view on the ultimate meaning and value of the non Christian religions emphasizing how they may relate to the adherents of the other religions with understanding and appreciation They will also understand more deeply the reality of Jesus the Father and the Spirit as a result of their dialogue with religious pluralism
