Travel Writing and Environmental Awareness Françoise Besson, 2023-08-24 Travel writing presents stories of human journeys and can guide us towards a better perception of our connections with the nonhuman world This book is a collection of essays by writers and scholars from China England France India Tunisia and the United States of America It discusses sustainable travels and travel writing and explores the sense of connection with nature From travels around one's home to mountain hikes and bicycle rides it also reminds us that planes can be used in a responsible way It discusses conscious travelling and shows the important role texts play in educating us on this issue This multidimensional book encompasses several literary genres essays autobiographies mountain reports novels poetry journals graphic novels and scientific reports It is aimed at all those who have some interest in travel ecology and the philosophy of place A Journey of One's Own

Thalia Zepatos, 2003 In this updated and expanded third edition of her bestselling book travel expert Thalia Zepatos shares stories travel tips wisdom and all the information and contacts you will need for a rewarding and safe journey Whether you're an armchair traveler or ready to hit the road traveling alone or with another and no matter your age or travel experience A Journey of One's Own will prove to be indispensable Book jacket Encountering Difference: New Perspectives on Genre, Travel and Gender

Gigi Adair, Lenka Filipova, 2020-03-03 This edited collection poses crucial questions about the relationship between gender and genre in travel writing asking how gender shapes formal and thematic approaches to the various generic forms employed to represent and recreate travel While the question of the genre of travel writing has often been debated is it a genre a hybrid genre a sub-genre of autobiography and recent years have been much attention to travel writing and gender these have rarely been combined This book sheds light on how the gendered nature of writing and reading about travel affect the genre choices and strategies of writers as well as the way in which travel writing is received It reconsiders traditional and frequently studied forms of travel writing both European and non European In addition it pursues questions about the connections between travel writing and other genres such as the novel and films minor forms including journalism and blogging and new sub genres such as the new nature writing focusing in particular on the political ramifications of genre in travel writing The collection is international in focus with discussions of works by authors from Europe Asia Australia and both North and South America consequently it will be of great interest to scholars and historians in those regions
