		exploring how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning drawing inferences such as identifying characters' feelings, thoughts and attitudes that they notice, and making connections with scenes explain and discuss their understanding of texts, scenes and other material, both their that they have noticed themselves that they read for themselves
		exploring that the characters react to them, discussing their understanding and explaining the meaning of words/phrases

Notice that in our interpretation of sample 3 we have not included a column which would include a range of information from other texts. Even with this inclusion there would be the Year 3 column; however, again, we discuss their understanding of texts, scenes and other material, both that they have noticed themselves that they read for themselves. Although the column would include the Year 3 'interpretation' stage it is expected that pupils will be extending with some at the stage of explaining there are many examples, age appropriate texts.
