Owens,2011-08-26 Reading has a history But how can we recover it This volume brings together original research essays focusing on the history of reading in the British Isles using evidence ranging from library records to Mass Observation surveys to highlight the social factors that influence a seemingly private individual activity British Medical Journal ,1922 British Humanities Index ,2009

Designing Learning Christopher Butcher,Clara Davies,Melissa Highton,2006-10-19 Written in an informative and jargon free style this book is guided by principles of good practice and covers the relevant theory to deal with the essential aspects of designing a course Important areas covered include learning levels and outcomesaligning learning and teaching strategiesassessment methodscourse managementC ITresources In this concise guide the authors look to the future in terms of integration of computing and technology in course design and consider the promotion of student learni Changing Lives Catherine Shaw,1994 The Scottish Educational Journal ,1959 Moments that Matter in the Learning and Development of Children Kelly Ann Kolodny,2020-08-01 Moments that Matter in the Learning and Development of Children Reflections from Educators explores the significant moments that unfold for young people in their schooling from the perspectives of teachers and school staff Educators often reflect on moments as being a critical piece of their work with children They can help make things better for students and produce a difference in lives They are meaningful for young people as well as consequential for teachers and school staff as they reflect on the outcomes of their efforts Yet as they are difficult to define and capture these moments often are not studied for the value they offer This book promotes awareness of these moments as well as their connected meanings and possibilities Recognizing the significance of moments extends an opportunity to situate schooling in broader contexts and to understand learners as whole embodied beings engaged in social interactions making sense of their surrounding world and generating transformations in it When educators reflect deeply about the possibilities connected to the moments they share with children they recognize the multitude of opportunities that support their learning and development They become awake to some of moments promises Healthier Lives, Digitally Enabled Mark Merolli,Chris Bain,Louise K. Schaper,2021-04-15 Disruption often drives innovation and 2020 was certainly an extraordinary year for all health professionals Not only did it stretch individual providers and healthcare systems to their limits it highlighted the urgent and rapid need to mobilize digital health technology as well as pressure testing digital health in ways and under timeframes not previously imagined Many saw the rapid deployment and uptake of telehealth services partly out of necessity to maintain continuity of care but also to ensure that those who needed healthcare were still able to access it no matter what their situation or location This book presents 17 selected papers from the Australian Health Informatics Conference HIC 2020 Healthier Lives Digitally Enabled held online from 5 25 November 2020 This annual conference usually marks the coming together of the nation's digital health community to discuss, share and showcase current and future initiatives that support the progression of digital health but in 2020 it took the form of satellite events culminating with an online Digital Health Institute Summit. The papers presented here reflect highly topical themes across various areas and disciplines including digital health in the care of the elderly, mental health, COVID-19, public health and workforce. Familiar topics such as wearables, mobile health and remote monitoring, interoperability and data privacy are also covered as well as telehealth, automation, bots and other AI applications. The book will be of interest to all health professionals especially those working in the fields of digital health, informatics and telemedicine. Thinking Home Sanja Bahun, Bojana Petric, 2020-06-07

Thinking Home challenges and extends the existing scholarship on the subject of home in a period which has seen unprecedented levels of movement across the globe. Sanja Bahun and Bojana Petric have collated essays that revisit existing ideas to introduce new ways of thinking on home from the individual and local through communal to the international levels. While home informs our feelings of belonging and displacement and our activities such as migration, housing and language learning, Bahun, Petric and contributors look to specific under-studied areas and encompass them within a major framework that allows for assessment through multiple disciplinary and expressive lenses. Thinking Home examines examples such as temporary homes, homes on the road, new and emergent modes of home-making and minority groups in home and housing debates. Fresh, timely and topical, Thinking Home is rooted in activism and policy-making in the sector of home; the essays both challenge and extend the existing scholarship on this subject. This collection combines perspectives of aesthetics, anthropology, cultural and literary studies, law, linguistics, philosophy, sociology, psychoanalysis, political science and activist responses in one whole. It will be essential reading for students of anthropology, literary studies, cultural studies and philosophy.
