regulates the directions we may take in the future Living the Good Life Elif Akçetin, Suraiya Faruqi, 2017-10-02

Eighteenth century consumers of the Qing and Ottoman empires had access to an increasingly diverse array of goods from home furnishings to fashionable clothes and new foodstuffs. While this tendency was of shorter duration and intensity in the Ottoman world, some urbanites of the sultans' realm did enjoy silks, coffee, and Chinese porcelain. By contrast, a vibrant consumer culture flourished in Qing China where many consumers flaunted their fur coats and indulged in gourmet dining. Living the Good Life explores how goods furthered the expansion of social networks, alliance building between rulers and regional elites, and the expression of elite urban and gender identities. The scholarship in the present volume highlights the recently emerging material turn in Qing and Ottoman historiographies and provides a framework for future research.

The undiscovered icon of American poetry

Northeastern Asia and the Northern Rockies Stephen Little, T. Lawrence Larkin, 2022

The philosophical ties between Northeastern Asia and the Northern Rockies, as represented in a selection of fine art including Daoist nature deities and immortals, Confucian scholar brushes and inkstones, and Buddhist guardian kings and compassionate bodhisattvas, have never been explicated. This catalog lays the groundwork for a serious discussion of trans-Pacific acculturation, first by explaining the fundamentals of Daoism, Confucianism, and Buddhism in reference to rare works of art produced in China, Korea, and Japan between the Tang Dynasty and the Qing Dynasty, and second by assessing the prevalence of these philosophies as indicated by photographs of temples, shrines, deities, and rituals recreated in Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, and Colorado between the Civil War and World War I. Drawing from the collections of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the Daryl S. Paulson Collection in Bozeman, Montana, Asian art curator Stephen Little offers three brief essays that distinguish the philosophies of Daoism, Confucianism, and Buddhism according to their founding values, each followed by several object case studies that illustrate, elaborate, and develop those ideals. Mining the photographs of the state historical societies of Boise, Helena, Cheyenne, and Denver, Euro-American art professor T. Lawrence Larkin offers a long essay that compares religious values and artistic forms on both sides of the Pacific, illustrated by objects that highlight migrant and settler culture in the Inner West. Profusely illustrated with new color and rarely seen black and white images and containing useful maps, chronologies, and an index, Northeastern Asia and the Northern Rockies is an invaluable reference for the general reader and an important resource for the regional scholar.
