You And Yours American Poets Continuum:

You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye, 2005 In You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye continues her conversation with ordinary people whose lives become through her empathetic use of poetic language extraordinary Nye writes of local life in her inner city Texas neighborhood about rural schools and urban communities she's visited in this country as well as the daily rituals of Jews and Palestinians who live in the war torn Middle East The Day I missed the day on which it was said others should not have certain weapons but we could Not only could but should and do I missed that day Was I sleeping I might have been digging in the yard doing something small and slow as usual Or maybe I wasn't born yet What about all the other people who aren't born Who will tell them Balancing direct language with a suggestive aslantness Nye probes the fragile connection between language and meaning She never shies from the challenge of trying to name the mysterious logic of childhood or speak truth to power in the face of the horrors of war She understands our lives are marked by tragedy inequity and misunderstanding and that our best chance of surviving our losses and shortcomings is to maintain a heightened awareness of the sacred in all things Naomi Shihab Nye poet editor anthologist is a recipient of writing fellowships from the Lannan and Guggenheim foundations Nye's work has been featured on PBS poetry specials including NOW with Bill Moyers The Language of Life with Bill Moyers and The United States of Poetry She has traveled abroad as a visiting writer on three Arts America tours sponsored by the United States Information Agency In 2001 she received a presidential appointment to the National Council of the National Endowment for the Humanities She lives in San Antonio Texas Talking through the Door Susan Atefat-Peckham, 2014-06-30 The writers included here are descendants of multiple cultural heritages and reflect the perspectives of various ethnic and cultural backgrounds Egyptian Iranian Iraqi Jordanian Lebanese Libyan Palestinian Syrian They are from diverse socioeconomic classes and spiritual sensibilities Jewish Muslim Christian and atheist among others Yet they coexist in this volume simply as American voices Atefat Peckham gathered poetry and prose from sixteen accomplished writers whose works concern a variety of themes from the familial cross cultural misunderstandings and conflicts in the works of Iranian American writers Nahid Rachlin and Roger Sedarat to the mysticism of Khaled Mattawa's poems from the superstitions that govern characters in Diana Abu Jaber's prose to the devastating homesickness of Pauline Kaldas's characters Filled with emotion and keen observations this collection showcases these writers' vital contributions to contemporary American literature The Persistence of Objects Richard García, 2006 Sonnets fables prose poems surrealism with a heart by a master of radically inventive poetry Public Library Catalog, 2004 In the Heart of the Beat Alexs Pate, 2009-11-24 Despite its extraordinary popularity and worldwide influence the world of rap and hip hop is under constant attack Impressions and interpretations of its meaning and power are perpetually being challenged Somewhere someone is bemoaning the negative impact of rap music on contemporary culture In In the Heart of the Beat The Poetry of Rap bestselling author and scholar Alexs Pate argues for a fresh understanding of rap as an example of powerful and effective poetry rather than a negative cultural phenomenon Pate articulates a way of reading rap that makes visible both its contemporary and historical literary values He encourages the reader to step beyond the dominance of the beat and the raw language and come to an appreciation of rap s literary and poetic dimensions What emerges is a vision of rap as an exemplary form of literary expression rather than a profane and trendy musical genre Pate focuses on works by several well known artists to reveal in rap music despite its penchant for vulgarity a power and beauty that is the heart of great literature
