Jennifer Miller Hoyer, 2014 Nelly Sachs 1891 1970 has long been regarded as one of the most significant Holocaust poets Her conception of language and words as a landscape has been understood by scholars and critics as an exilic ersatz Heimat for the lost German homeland of a displaced poet This reading however is based entirely on her postwar poems Such an isolated approach to her complex body of work is increasingly historically problematic it is also at odds with Sachs s generally cyclical poetic process In The Space of Words Jennifer Hoyer offers the first sustained critical analysis of Sachs s largely unanalyzed prewar poetry and prose as well as the first analysis that examines structural and thematic ties between the prewar works and the Nobel Prize winning postwar poetry Through close readings of both Sachs s prewar and postwar works Hoyer reveals a diasporic rather than exilic conception of the landscape of language a position of constant wandering rather than static longing for return This diasporic poetics promotes the intellectual and linguistic power of the wanderer and opens new insights into Sachs s essential significance as a Holocaust poet and a twentieth century German Jewish writer wary of the link of literary language to geopolitics and the narrative of nations Jennifer M Hoyer is Assistant Professor of German at the University of Arkansas

The Spiritual Journey of a Coptic Christian Brain Surgeon: Views and Reflections Ramsis F. Ghaly MD, 2018-11-09 Deeper and deeper as the human spirit roams with fascination unto Divinity Never enough roaming This is my eleventh book of Christianity and the human brain As a neurosurgeon for thirty years I have found unlimited bonds between the Christian Divinity and the human brain My neurosurgical humanity eagerly desires to explore Divinity Since my childhood goes back decades and is deeply rooted I meditate with my Christian brain searching for common understanding of spirituality in humanity It is hard to describe this through each book and I find myself seeking more Divine clarifications My meditation is achieved thorough reading the Holy Bible with my neurosurgical human brain I try to peel my deep thoughts layer by layer as if I am dissecting the human brain in neurosurgery in actual life The book touches on many timely aspects of our human life with personal spiritual views and poems The book consists of Twelve major Sections and each section ranges from 8 to 23 chapters with total of 137 chapters The main sections include My Christian Dreams in Neurosurgery Monasticism in My Life Mothers and Children Angels Living Human Brains and Spirituality Jesus Love The Persecuted Christ and Christ Followers Royalty and Heavens with Jesus Last Hours in humanity Spiritual Reflections Views and Poems Law and the Spirit Sacred Medicine and Patients Testimonials As a Coptic Christian from Egypt I was raised in keeping up with strong Christian Orthodox practice in daily living Perhaps the strength of the book is incorporating Jesus the Almighty God in everything I do not only in daily living but also with my patients in Neurosurgery practice There is a dire need of such a book especially in an era where Christianity continued to be persecuted worldwide and denied in a daily basis as evidenced through public restraining of Lord Jesus Christ in our daily life The human brain and Neurosurgery are in Jesus God as Christ the Lord is in human brain and Neurosurgery I hope for the reader to find spiritual use of the book and a closer relationship to our Holy Trinity God the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit
