Total Gonzo Poems Charles Giuliano:

Total Gonzo Poems Charles Giuliano, 2015-11-10 With his second book Total Gonzo Poems Charles Giuliano documents the true history of the ubiquitous and evocative word gonzo. He coined it and was the first to publish gonzo in a July 3 1970 review of Ten Years After for the Boston Herald Traveler. He was its jazz and rock critic at the time. This colorful richly illustrated book explores his Irish and Italian family history with an emphasis on the Nugents of Rockport. In gonzo style he writes about the famous musicians he covered over the years. The range of subjects is diverse accessible packs a punch and is always witty unique and entertaining. There is nothing precious esoteric or pretentious about this lively and fun collection of poetry. The book includes a scholarly essay Gonzo Shine by former CBS News producer Robert Henriquez. Ultra Cosmic Gonzology Charles Giuliano, 2016-08-15 Ultra Cosmic Gonzology is the third book by poet Charles Giuliano published in rapid succession from June 2014 to August 2016. Now in his mid 70s the first book Shards of a Life initiated reflections on issues of legacy. The three books continue to explore family history a career as a critic of the fine arts jazz blues and rock as well as the cosmic. The second book Total Gonzo Poems established the author's literary and social context as the one who coined the ubiquitous word gonzo. With Hunter S Thompson and William J Cardoso he was one of three founders of the gonzo school of literature. The volumes convey his gonzo approach which has evolved from journalism to poetry. Given the enormous interest in all matters related to gonzo with this book Giuliano founds the field of gonzology. Its range of topics hipster style outrageous humor and aesthetic irony offer vivid examples of what he means by the freshly minted term. As gonzology is absorbed by academia these poetic volumes comprise rich and amusing additions to the study and appreciation of a major movement of outrageous style. The books are profusely illustrated by the author. The current volume includes many vintage images of seminal jazz blues and rock performers as well as visual and performance artists. In addition to poems inspired by career and life experiences the poet also probed deeply into philosophy and far reaches of the unknown. This entails the Ultra Cosmic dimensions of his unique gonzology. Readers of Giuliano's poems often describe them as having the kind of riffs speed and rhythm that relate to the bop and jazz that he writes about. They are meant to be read rapidly with deep breaths. Already in the works is a fourth book The Nugents of Rockport. Shards of a Life Charles Giuliano, 2015-05-14 Shards of a Life continues Gonzo journalism in a book of Gonzo staccato poems by the renowned critic Charles Giuliano. In the July 3 1970 edition of the Boston Herald Traveler for which he covered jazz and rock he wrote "Some 25 000 gonzo fans jammed the bowl end of Harvard Stadium Wednesday July 1 to hear their sex rock idols Ten Years After." The Schaefer Festival foams on with top rock. It was the first published use of Gonzo which he coined while telling a wild tale in the living room of then Boston Globe Sunday Magazine editor William J Cardoso. In a later letter Cardoso passed the Gonzo to Hunter S Thompson. Giuliano is the only surviving original Gonzo. The poems include memories of his colorful Italian Irish heritage growing up as the son of medical doctors. Their subjects range from an interview with the Duke of Windsor a debutante ball at Versailles and yacht racing in Annisquam to encounters with jazz and rock musicians including Miles Davis Gerry Mulligan Dexter Gordon The Rolling Stones James Brown Moondog Yoko Ono and Captain Beefheart
