will gain immensely Alan Prout Professor of Sociology University of Stirling For millennia children have been valued as possessions valued by their parents as my child and valued by communities and cultures as belonging to them Recently a new way of valuing children has emerged valuing them as people in possession of themselves as people who have rights This has led to fears that rights will erode love between parents and children and separate children from their communities and cultures Childhood and Human Value explains why people feel this way and argues that they are mistaken Adults in modern societies have separation anxieties about children s rights because they are used to measuring human value against a standard of separateness The more separate you appear to be from the opinions and control of others the more valuable you seem This highly original and accessible book shows us how to resolve the conflict between love and rights in contemporary relationships between adults and children Examining a number of Twentieth Century developmental thinkers including Vygotsky Winnicott Gilligan and Deleuze and Guattari Nick Lee argues that a more flexible and realistic understanding of the sources of human value is available to us based on separability Childhood and Human Value is key reading for students in a variety of fields including sociology of childhood family studies sociology of education psychology of development and childhood studies It is also of interest to professionals who work with children for example social workers teachers and the police

Psychoanalysis and the Future of Global Politics Robert Samuels, 2023-08-31 This book offers a unique approach by using psychoanalytic theory to explain how we can resolve the most important issues facing the world today and in the future One of my main arguments is that we need to move beyond national politics in order to provide global solutions to global problems However there is a misplaced fear concerning global governance and much of this phobia is derived from a misunderstanding of history and human psychology Not only do we have to learn to give up our idealized investment in nations and nationalism but we also have to move beyond seeing the world from the perspective of a victim fantasy Since we often repress real signs of global progress we experience the global present and the future in negative ways To reverse this perspective we need to first understand the incredible progress humans have made in the last two hundred years but we also should not ignore the real threats we face EBOOK: Approaches to Psychology William Glassman, Marilyn

Hadad, 2013-01-16 Approaches to Psychology provides a contemporary accessible and coherent introduction to the field of psychology from its origins to the present and shows the contribution of psychology to understanding human behaviour and experience The book introduces students to the five core conceptual frameworks or approaches to psychology biological behaviourist cognitive psychodynamic and humanistic The methods theories and assumptions of each approach are explored so that the reader builds an understanding of psychology as it applies to human development social and abnormal behaviour New to this edition Expanded coverage of positive psychology Expansion of the coverage of influential psychoanalytic theorists including Anna Freud and John Bowlby Discussion of the controversies in the formulation of DSM 5 Expanded coverage of other topics including development and types of mental disorders Updated and expanded Online Learning Centre with student support material and instructor material at www.mcgraw-hill.co.uk/textbooks/glassman including PowerPoint slides and videos An Existentialist Theory of the Human Spirit (Volume 1) Shlomo Giora Shoham, 2020-07-22 This first volume examines how sexual mores and behavior religious dogma and practice and artistic creativity and authenticity have influenced and been influenced by the existentialist thought of Kierkegaard Heidegger Sartre Nietzsche Husserl and Buber and the writings of Camus Dostoevsky Beckett Kafka and Shestov It compares the author's personality theory with those of Freud Jung Fairbairn Karl Abraham and Melanie Klein and Buddhist Gnostic Christian and Muslim mysticism with

Jewish Kabbalah It explains society's harsh treatment of Carlo Gesualdo Vincent van Gogh and Antonin Artaud and analyzes the existentialist approach to existence absurdity human dialogue and suicide It will appeal to students and professionals in fields as diverse as philosophy psychology sociology anthropology religion law music art drama literature and biology The Feeling of the Form Joseph R. Metz, 2025-11-15 The Feeling of the Form explores the concept of Einfuehlung the projection of human feelings and life into inanimate forms developed by German aesthetic theorists in the late nineteenth century The word would be translated into English as empathy and migrate in meaning from the aesthetic to the interpersonal sphere Combining close analysis and cultural para history The Feeling of the Form reads literary texts by Georg Buechner Adalbert Stifter and Rainer Maria Rilke alongside philosophical texts by Robert Vischer Vernon Lee and Theodor Lipps to uncover the often uncanny intersections of aesthetic and interpersonal empathy Traveling both backward and forward in time from the 1873 invention of Einfuehlung Joseph R Metz traces the diverse and multidirectional exchanges among subjects and objects feelings and forms and selves and others that together yield an expanded understanding of Einfuehlung empathy and the connections between them In its surprising juxtapositions The Feeling of the Form also shows how nineteenth and early twentieth century texts prefigure a wide array of later thought including affect theory other minds artificial intelligence object oriented ontology and cinema and video game aesthetics

Postcolonial Semantics Carsten Levisen, 2024-04-01 Global knowledge production increasingly happens through one particular language modern Anglo English What does the Anglocentric reliance of English words and phrases mean for the way we make claims formulate research questions and develop theories In this monograph these questions are scrutinized and explored through Postcolonial Semantics a new framework that draws on advances in postcolonial linguistics and cognitive cultural semantics Through original semantic work on Bislama words and Urban Pacific concepts each chapter provides alternatives to Anglocentric linguistic framings of knowledge in the domains of language communication sociology psychology and geopolitics Highlighting the pluriversality of meaning making and the multipolarity of knowledge the book speaks into central themes in semantics including the question of metalanguage and the representation of meaning as well as contact zone semantics and the colonial matrix of power All analyses are provided in both English and Bislama through a translatable semantic metalanguage of shared human concepts Apart from semanticists and postcolonial language scholars the monograph is of interest to researchers and research students in fields such as World Englishes creole studies linguistic anthropology intercultural pragmatics and global discourse studies

Reading in the Dark Jessica R. McCort, 2016-04-28 Contributions by Rebecca A Brown Justine Gieni Holly Harper Emily L Hiltz A Robin Hoffman Kirsten Kowalewski Peter C Kunze Jorie Lagerwey Nick Levey Jessica R McCort and Janani Subramanian Dark novels shows and films targeted toward children and young adults are proliferating wildly It is even more crucial now to understand the methods by which such texts have traditionally operated and how those methods have been challenged abandoned and appropriated Reading in the Dark fills a gap in criticism devoted to children's popular culture by concentrating on horror an often neglected genre These scholars explore the intersection between horror popular culture and children s cultural productions including picture books fairy tales young adult literature television and monster movies Reading in the Dark looks at horror texts for children with deserved respect weighing the multitude of benefits they can provide for young readers and viewers Refusing to write off the horror genre as campy trite or deforming these essays instead recognize many of the texts and films categorized as scary as among those most widely consumed by children and young adults In addition scholars consider how adult horror has been domesticated by children s literature and culture with authors and screenwriters turning that which was once horrifying into safe funny and delightful books and films Scholars likewise examine the impetus behind such re envisioning of the adult horror novel or film as something appropriate for the young The collection investigates both the constructive and the troublesome aspects of scary books movies and television shows targeted toward children and young adults It considers the complex mechanisms by which these texts communicate overt messages and hidden agendas and it treats as well the readers experiences of such mechanisms

Resolving Structural Conflicts Richard E. Rubenstein, 2017-01-06 This book analyses how certain types of social systems generate violent conflict and discusses how these systems can be transformed in order to create the conditions for positive peace Resolving Structural Conflicts addresses a key issue in the field of conflict studies what to do about violent conflicts that are not the results of misunderstanding prejudice or malice but the products of a social system that generates violent conflict as part of its normal operations This question poses enormous challenges to those interested in conflict resolution since the solution to this problem involves restructuring social political and cultural systems rather than just calling in a mediator to help people arrive at an agreement This study breaks new ground in showing how local conflicts involving crime police and prisons transnational conflicts involving religious terrorism by groups like ISIS and international conflicts involving Great Power clashes are all produced in large part by elite driven exploitative or oppressive social structures It also presents new ideas about the implications of this structural turn for the practice of conflict resolution emphasizing the need for conflict resolvers to embrace a new politics and to broaden their methods far beyond traditional forms of facilitation Written by a leading scholar this book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies war and conflict studies sociology political science and international relations in general

Totem and taboo Sigmund Freud, 1942 Socialism - An Economic and Sociological Analysis Ludwig von Mises, 2016-11-24 Socialism is the watchword and the catchword of our day The socialist idea dominates the modern spirit The masses approve of it It expresses the thoughts and feelings of all it has set its seal upon our time When history comes to tell our story it will write above the chapter The Epoch of Socialism As yet it is true Socialism has not created a society which can be said to represent its ideal But for more than a generation the policies of civilized nations have been directed towards nothing less than a gradual realization of Socialism 17 In recent years the movement has grown noticeably in vigour and tenacity Some nations have sought to achieve Socialism in its fullest sense

at a single stroke Before our eyes Russian Bolshevism has already accomplished something which whatever we believe to be its significance must by the very magnitude of its design be regarded as one of the most remarkable achievements known to world history Elsewhere no one has yet achieved so much But with other peoples only the inner contradictions of Socialism itself and the fact that it cannot be completely realized have frustrated socialist triumph They also have gone as far as they could under the given circumstances Opposition in principle to Socialism there is none Today no influential party would dare openly to advocate Private Property in the Means of Production The word Capitalism expresses for our age the sum of all evil Even the opponents of Socialism are dominated by socialist ideas In seeking to combat Socialism from the standpoint of their special class interest these opponents the parties which particularly call themselves bourgeois or peasant admit indirectly the validity of all the essentials of socialist thought For if it is only possible to argue against the socialist programme that it endangers the particular interests of one part of humanity one has really affirmed Socialism If one complains that the system of economic and social organization which is based on private property in the means of production does not sufficiently consider the interests of the community that it serves only the purposes of single strata and that it limits productivity and if therefore one demands with the supporters of the various social political and social reform movements state interference in all fields of economic life then one has fundamentally accepted the principle of the socialist programme Or again if one can only argue against socialism that the imperfections of human nature make its realization impossible or that it is inexpedient under existing economic conditions to proceed at once to socialization then one merely confesses that one has capitulated to socialist ideas The nationalist too affirms socialism and objects only to its Internationalism He wishes to combine Socialism with the ideas of Imperialism and the struggle against foreign nations He is a national not an international socialist but he also approves of the essential principles of Socialism

Animated Lands Andrea Mubi Brighenti, Mattias Karrholm, 2020-11

In Animated Lands Andrea Mubi Brighenti and Mattias Karrholm focus on territory as a living phenomenon and territoriality as an active and constantly reshaping force They explore the complexity of territorial production through a series of parallel investigations into fundamental territorial themes such as rhythm synchronization melody morphogenesis and animism The notion of territory is excavated through case studies including the analysis of urban playgrounds homemaking the transformations of urban walls and the stabilization of peculiar building types such as the house museum These empirical examples span such cities as Ahmedabad Amsterdam London and Rome Animated Lands provides a broad introduction to what a theory of territories could be and how it could help to advance sociospatial studies

Colonial Trauma Karima Lazali, 2021-01-22

Colonial Trauma is a path breaking account of the psychosocial effects of colonial domination Following the work of Frantz Fanon Lazali draws on historical materials as well as her own clinical experience as a psychoanalyst to shed new light on the ways in which the history of colonization leaves its traces on contemporary postcolonial selves Lazali found that many of her patients experienced difficulties that can only be explained as the effects of colonial trauma dating from the French colonization of Algeria and the postcolonial period Many French feel weighed down by a colonial history that they are aware of but which they have not experienced directly Many Algerians are traumatized by the way that the French colonial state imposed new names on people and the land thereby severing the links with community history and genealogy and contributing to feelings of loss abandonment and injustice Only by reconstructing this history and uncovering its consequences can we understand the impact of colonization and give individuals the tools to come to terms with their past By demonstrating the power of psychoanalysis to illuminate the subjective dimension of colonial domination this book will be of great interest to anyone concerned with the long term consequences of colonization and its aftermath Totem and Taboo Sigmund Freud, James Strachey, 2001 Widely acknowledged to be one of Freud's greatest works when first published in 1913 this book caused outrage It remains the fullest exploration of Freud's most famous themes Family society religion they're all put on the couch
