Tourism, Development and South Africa Garth Allen, 2025-11-13 Drawing on his thirty years of consultancy experience with the World Bank, the UN Development Programme, the African Union and UNICEF, leading tourism and development expert Garth Allen offers a deep dive into the socio-political dynamics that have shaped tourism in South Africa since its first democratic elections in 1994. In so doing, Allen engages a vast range of burgeoning debates on the potential and limits of sustainable socio-economic development in Africa and throughout the Global South. Bringing all this to bear on key tourism phenomena such as cultural tourism, eco-tourism, pro-poor tourism, event tourism and medical tourism, Allen shows what varies according to local contexts and at the same time what remains consistent across Africa and other areas of the Global South, all of which brings into focus those forces within the international political economy that drive both tourism and development. For its broad theoretical coverage and its rich empirical detail, drawing on the author's first-hand experience, this book is an essential resource for upper-level students and researchers interested in international tourism studies, political economics, international development and the international political economics of Africa and the Global South.

Urban Tourism in the Global South Christian M. Rogerson, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-07-13 This book examines and addresses the particular character of urban tourism occurring in the global South. It presents research essays on tourism in urban areas of South Africa, a country which is associated with big 5 nature tourism but where urban areas are also major tourism destinations. The book contextualizes urban tourism in South Africa as part of the other half of urban tourism, an overlooked but energetic scholarship which is emerging on urban places in the global South. The volume moves to present a collection of original material variously on national perspectives on urban tourism following by a cluster of city level perspectives The last three contributions turn to the role of tourism in small towns the bottom rung in the urban settlement system Issues of concern include gastronomic tourism VFR travel airportsclapes climate change AirBnb and creative tourism Finally as COVID 19 is potentially a defining historical moment for urban tourism the volume incorporates historical research perspectives in order to address the overwhelming present mindedness of mainstream urban tourism writings The book highlights the challenges and opportunities for tourism development in the environment of the urban global South and is relevant to scholars of both tourism and urban studies as well as researchers in development studies
