Toward New Horizons Arab Economic Transformation Amid Political Transition:

Vers de nouveaux horizons : La transformation économique sur fond de transition politique dans le monde arabe

Mr.Harald Finger,Ms.Daniela Gressani,2014-05-12 Les mutations du paysage politique dans le monde arabe ouvrent des perspectives pour transformer l'économie en remédiant des problèmes économiques de longue date. Néanmoins trois ans après le début de la transition politique dans le monde arabe, force est de constater qu'il a été difficile de gérer les transitions et de mettre en œuvre les réformes économiques nécessaires. Ce document présente des éléments de réformes essentiels dans le domaine de la politique économique pour les pays arabes en transition. Toward New Horizons Mr.Harald Finger,Ms.Daniela Gressani,2014-04-11

The changing political landscape in the Arab world has created opportunities for economic transformation by tackling long standing economic issues. Nevertheless three years after the onset of political transition implementing necessary economic policies has proven to be challenging. This paper lays out key elements of economic policy reform for Arab countries in transition. Arab Countries in Transition - An Update on Economic Outlook and Key Challenges International Monetary Fund,2014-04-16

Despite uneven progress there are early signs of improvement and macroeconomic stabilization in some Arab Countries in Transition. ACTs 1 However persistently weak growth and subdued private investment amid heightened regional insecurity continue to weigh on the task of reducing unemployment. This calls for accelerated reform efforts by the authorities to achieve higher more inclusive and more private sector led growth supported by external partners. In addition mobilizing affordable external financing could help boost well implemented public investment and provide a short term impetus to growth and employment thereby stabilizing difficult socio political conditions on the ground and providing space for deeper structural reforms. Publications Catalog, Fall 2014 International Monetary Fund,2014-09-25

This paper presents an overview of the book Collapse and Revival Understanding Global Recessions and Recoveries that tracks the global business cycle through the destruction of a global recession to the renewal of recovery drawing on four major episodes during the past half century. This book defines the terms of global recessions and recoveries documents their main features describes the events that take place around these episodes puts the latest global recession and ongoing recovery in perspective and analyzes the interactions between fluctuations in the global growth and national growth over the different phases of the global cycle. Civil Servants and Globalization Tony Verheijen,Katarina Staronova,Ibrahim Elghandour,Anne-Lucie Lefebvre,2022-06-24

This volume analyses the impact of globalization on civil service systems across the Middle East and North Africa. A collaboration between practitioners and academic public policy experts it presents an analytical model to assess how globalization influences civil servants illustrated by case studies of countries where there have been increased engagement with international actors. It demonstrates how this increased interaction has altered the position of civil servants and traces the shifting patterns of power and accountability between civil servants politicians and other actors. It is an original and important addition to the debate about globalization's role in transnational public administration and governance Arab Countries in Transition - Economic Outlook and Key Challenges International Monetary Fund, 2014-06-10 In spite of deepening and spreading conflicts in the region as well as in many cases a challenging internal socio political environment the Arab Countries in Transition Egypt Jordan Libya Morocco Tunisia and Yemen have broadly maintained macroeconomic stability At the same time however their economies are not delivering the growth rates needed for a meaningful reduction in unemployment in particular for the youth and women Notwithstanding diversity of conditions countries should quickly advance structural reforms to foster higher and more inclusive growth and continue to strengthen fiscal and external buffers to maintain stability amid heightened uncertainty Coordinated support from the international community will be crucial in the form of financing improved trade access and capacity building assistance Rich World, Poor World Ali A. Allawi, 2024-04-23 A landmark history of the world economic order exploring how developing countries have fought to escape impoverishment Over the past two decades experiments in neoliberal economics have opened up a chasm of inequality between the Global South and the West Development advice from richer nations has led to social upheaval political unrest environmental degradation and even the creation of a new underclass Brutal extremes of wealth and poverty are now commonplace Ali A Allawi traces the evolution of the world economic order from the late imperial era to the present day Shedding light on continuing controversies Allawi shows how the process of development has been hindered at every turn from poor leadership and lost opportunities to widespread corruption In doing so he argues that the current neoliberal consensus is only the most recent of a series of failed policy imperatives Covering issues in the Global South as well as failures in the West this definitive account offers an impassioned and authoritative call for change Regional Economic Outlook, October 2014, Middle East and Central Asia, International Monetary Fund. Middle East and Central Asia Dept., 2014-10-27 This issue discusses economic developments in the Middle East North Africa Afghanistan and Pakistan MENAP which continue to reflect the diversity of conditions prevailing across the region Most high income oil exporters primarily in the GCC continue to record steady growth and solid economic and financial fundamentals albeit with medium term challenges that need to be addressed In contrast other countries Iraq Libya and Syria are mired in conflicts with not only humanitarian but also economic consequences And yet other countries mostly oil importers are making continued but uneven progress in advancing their economic agendas often in tandem with political transitions and amidst difficult social conditions In most of these countries without extensive economic and structural reforms economic prospects for the medium term remain insufficient to reduce high unemployment and improve living standards Young Generation Awakening Edward A. Sayre, Tarik M. Yousef, 2016-06-28 The street protests that erupted in Tunisia in December 2010 and spread quickly throughout the Middle East surprised not only the entrenched dictators of the region but also international observers who collectively had taken for granted the durability of Middle Eastern authoritarianism Specifically the Arab Spring uprisings debunked the prevailing notion that youth were disengaged from political life by their economic exclusion and tight regime control of their mobilization. Indeed, the one consistent feature across the uprisings, whether peaceful or violent, was the key role played by young people. What has remained unclear is why youth became the vanguards of the Arab Spring protests and why they have not played a more prominent role in the transitions that followed. To address these questions, the authors in this volume use updated data sets on demography, employment, education, inequality, social media, and public sentiment to examine the underlying socioeconomic conditions of young people in the Middle East at the time of the uprisings and offer a mosaic of analytical explanations linking those conditions from 2009–2011 to the revolts of 2010–2012. The findings in the volume confirm the inadequacy of traditional, narrow explanations rooted in demographic profiles, economic grievances, or political exclusion in accounting for the complex socioeconomic dynamics facing youth and societies at large in the Middle East in the period leading up to the Arab Spring. The contributors emphasize the fundamental institutional rigidities in the region's policy space and evaluate potential approaches to policy reform that can promote youth inclusion and help transform the region's political economies in the post-Arab Spring environment of persistent economic volatility, social unrest, and political instability.

Constitution-Making under UN Auspices Vijayashri Sripati, 2020-01-16 In 1949, United Nations Constitutional Assistance (UNCA) was conceived to promote the Western liberal constitution. This was colonial trusteeship. However, in 1960, as a step towards decolonization, the United Nations General Assembly rejected internationalized constitution making and, by extension, UNCA. All colonies acquired the right to draft their own constitutions without any international assistance. Nonetheless, in the same year, UNCA was revived, and since then it has helped over 40 developing sovereign states to adopt the Western liberal constitution for the aims of building peace, preventing conflict, and promoting good governance in these independent states. This book scrutinizes UNCA and its offshoot, UN International Territorial Administration (ITA), including their historical origins and revival from 1960 to 2019. Sripati argues that although the United Nations (UN) uses UNCA to help developing sovereign states secure debt relief, it undertakes UNCA to modernize them with a view to strengthen their supposedly weakened sovereignty. By doing so, the UN is seeking these states' adoption of a Western liberal style constitution, thus violating their right to self-determination. The book shows how UNCA sires and guides UN legislative assistance in all state sectors: security, judicial, electoral, commercial, parliamentary, public administration, and criminal. Irrespective of UNCA's benevolent motivations, such intrusive interventions impose the old forms of domination and perpetuate global inequality.

Socioeconomic Protests in MENA and Latin America Irene Weipert-Fenner, Jonas Wolff, 2019-07-05 This edited volume presents a detailed account of the dynamics of socioeconomic contention in Egypt and Tunisia since 2011. Combining quantitative and qualitative methods, it analyses what has happened to the socioeconomic grievances that played a key role in the mass mobilizations of 2010 and 2011. The book is based on an original data set of socioeconomic protests in the two countries and on in-depth case studies that cover the two most important types of socioeconomic contention: labor protests and protests by socioeconomically disadvantaged people outside the formal economy Drawing on a systematic review of comparative research on Latin America the authors argue that the dynamics of socioeconomic contention in contemporary Egypt and Tunisia reflect a deep seated crisis of popular sector incorporation This work promises to enrich the scholarly and the political debates on Egypt and Tunisia the MENA region and on contentious politics in times of political change Chapter 10 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at link springer com
