Religion and Identity in South Asia and Beyond Steven E. Lindquist, 2013-12-01 This volume brings together sixteen articles on the religions literatures and histories of South and Central Asia in tribute to Patrick Olivelle one of North America's leading Sanskritists and historians of early India Over the last four decades the focus of his scholarship has been on the ascetic and legal traditions of India but his work as both a researcher and a teacher extends beyond early Indian religion and literature Religion and Identity in South Asia and Beyond is a testament to that influence The contributions in this volume many by former students of Olivelle are committed to linguistic and historical rigor combined with sensitivity to how the study of Asia has been changing over the last several decades

India Aline Dobbie, 2006 Follows the author's 2 500km journey through Southern India This work has elements of the travelog but is infused with perspicacious insights into the people and culture of India It also captures the contradictions of India and its long history the embracing of the modern in the landscape of the past
