Posthuman Subjectivity in the Novels of J.G. Ballard Carolyn Lau,2023-07-28 This book proposes that Ballard s novels extrapolate the formation of a posthuman subjectivity that is centred around an affirmative understanding of what a human body can do This new subjectivity transforms constraints and prescribed desires into creative openings in a hyper mediated control society that conditions docile bodies through technology and consumerism Set in surrealist predicaments in postwar affluent Western societies Ballard s novels remind us of the fragile veneer of order in the familiar every day In these moments of crisis complacent characters are compelled to undergo a process of defamiliarisation and transformation of their understanding of the self and the body The ability to form new relationships with the unfamiliar is imperative to survival in a hostile environment Ballard delineates both the possibilities and obstacles of forming these relationships In particular the author attributes the failure to do so to the irreconcilable contradictions of late capitalism
