TANAK Marvin A. Sweeney, 2011-11-01 Though biblical theology has long been considered a strictly Christian enterprise Marvin A Sweeney here proposes a Jewish theology of the Hebrew Bible based on the importance of Tanak as the foundation of Judaism and organized around the major components Torah Nevi im Prophets and Kethuvim Writings Sweeney finds the structuring themes of Jewish life the constitution of the nation Israel in relation to God the disruption of that ideal documented by the Prophets and the reconstitution of the nation around the Second Temple in the Writings Throughout he is attentive to tensions within and among the texts and the dialogical character of Israel s sacred heritage Publisher description

Polemic in the Book of Hebrews Lloyd Kim, 2006-11-01 The author of Hebrews is arguing that God himself has brought about the fulfillment of these institutions through his Son s priesthood his once for all sacrifice and the new covenant he inaugurated in the last days These new institutions are never denied the Jews In fact the context of the epistle presumes that these are primarily for the Jews considering that the author was speaking to a Jewish Christian community The author is not arguing for the abandonment by God of the Jewish people but rather for the abandonment of the shadowy means by which God s people drew near to him It is here we can speak of a qualified supersessionism According to the author of Hebrews the Levitical priesthood the Mosaic covenant and the Levitical sacrifices have been superseded by Jesus priesthood the new covenant and Jesus once for all sacrifice However we conclude that the polemical passages in Hebrews do not promote hatred of the Jews nor do they advocate the destruction of the Jewish people Rather the author of Hebrews stresses the fulfillment of specific Jewish institutions for the benefit of the Jews It is this idea of fulfillment that rules out the charge that the epistle promotes the supercession of the Jewish people Because of God s great love for his people he has provided a
