Touched With Fire Kay Redfield Jamison, 1996-10-18 The definitive work on the profound and surprising links between manic depression and creativity from the bestselling psychologist of bipolar disorders who wrote An Unquiet Mind One of the foremost psychologists in America Kay Jamison is plainly among the few who have a profound understanding of the relationship that exists between art and madness William Styron The anguished and volatile intensity associated with the artistic temperament was once thought to be a symptom of genius or eccentricity peculiar to artists writers and musicians Her work based on her study as a clinical psychologist and researcher in mood disorders reveals that many artists subject to exalted highs and despairing lows were in fact engaged in a struggle with clinically identifiable manic depressive illness Jamison presents proof of the biological foundations of this disease and applies what is known about the illness to the lives and works of some of the world's greatest artists including Lord Byron Vincent Van Gogh and Virginia Woolf

Indigenous African Popular Music, Volume 2 Abiodun Salawu, Israel A. Fadipe, 2022-06-14 This volume examines how African indigenous popular music is deployed in democracy politics and for social crusades by African artists Exploring the role of indigenous African popular music in environmental health communication and gender empowerment it subsequently focuses on how the music portrays the African future its use by African youths and how it is affected by advanced broadcast technologies and the digital media Indigenous African popular music has long been under appreciated in communication scholarship However understanding the nature and philosophies of indigenous African popular music reveals an untapped diversity which can only be unraveled by the knowledge of myriad cultural backgrounds from which its genres originate With a particular focus on scholarship from Nigeria Zimbabwe and South Africa this volume explores how during the colonial period and post independence dispensation indigenous African music genres and their artists were mainstreamed in order to tackle emerging issues to sensitise Africans about the affairs of their respective nations and to warn African leaders who have failed and are failing African citizenry about the plight of the people At the same time indigenous African popular music genres have served as a beacon to the teeming African youths to express their dreams frustrations about their environments and to represent themselves This volume explores how through the advent of new media technologies indigenous African popular musicians have been working relentlessly for indigenous production becoming champions of good governance marginalised population and repositories of indigenous cultural traditions and cosmologies Making the Changes Michael Titlestad, 2021-11-15 Throughout its history South African Jazz has been formed from complex transactions with other black Atlantic cultures identities and political possibilities Making the Changes considers jazz discourse from the legendary Ian Valters of the Sophiatown writers through the King Kong reportage and white writing to the agonised poetics of exile Authority Matters , 2015-06-29 In this wide ranging collection of essays eleven literary scholars and creative writers examine authorship and authority in relation to the production and reception of cultural texts Ranging in time from the Renaissance to the era of digital publishing the essays invite us to reconsider the influential theories of Roland Barthes Michel Foucault and Pierre Bourdieu for our understanding of writers such as Philip Sidney Thomas Hardy Laura Riding W B Yeats Gertrude Stein and J M Coetzee Shedding new light on authority's complex role in the generation of cultural meaning the essays will be of interest to students and teachers of literary history and critical theory alike Diasporas, Weddings and the Trajectories of Ethnicity Terence Heng, 2020-12-29 In an age of increasingly fragmented migration consumption and globalisation how do diasporic individuals navigate their ethnic identities Diasporas Weddings and the Trajectories of Ethnicity investigates the ways that Chinese Singaporeans shape their Chineseness through wedding rituals and artefacts Proposing a framework of ethnic identity as a journey this book will interrogate the processes underlying diasporic ethnicity making through weddings Offer new concepts of transdiasporic space ethnic tastes and aesthetic dissonance Explore the intersections between commercialism ethnicity and socio economic divides Map the micro social ramifications of ethnic and racial policy in Singapore As a former professional wedding photographer Terence Heng brings a sociological lens to the scripted and spontaneous arena of social interactions that is the wedding day By combining ethnographic observation photography and poetry Heng reveals the many decisions and demands that underscore Singaporean Chinese weddings offering novel insights into the roles of the bridal couple their social networks and the wedding industry The Last Stanza , 2011-06-27 The LAST STANZA An Anthology of Poems from Tel Aviv is the first book from StanzAviv a creative collective of writers associated with Bar Ilan University and Tel Aviv University STANZA members or Stanzites come from Israel USA UK France Canada Latvia and beyond Israel is a dramatic place and the poetry in this selection is humorous political tragic and inspiring Topics range from seeking refuge travelling in Africa war love meditations on existence being Jewish at Christmas internet banking waking up drunk on a riverside and more Most poems in this Stanzology are in English plus there is a section in Hebrew All profits from this book go to the ARDC African Refugee Development Center an NGO in south Tel Aviv that provides shelter education counseling and advice to refugees and asylum seekers in Israel A Mind Apart Mark S. Humanity in Healthcare Peter Barritt,2017-11-22 The impressive progress of medical science over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries has tended to overshadow the art of caring for the patient and their families This book aims to restore the balance by examining practical ways in which the arts can help health professionals to understand the experience of suffering and illness Written by a family physician with 25 years experience Humanity in Healthcare offers a broad perspective on the potential contribution of the arts toward fostering a humane approach to the care of those who are ill or suffering It refers to a wide range of literature from prose and poetry sociology history philosophy politics religion and spirituality This book is an invaluable resource for all medical and healthcare professionals as well as students of the medical humanities British Books in Print ,1979

Signifying Pain Judith Harris,2012-02-01 A deeply personal yet universal work Signifying Pain applies the principles of therapeutic writing to such painful life experiences as mental illness suicide racism domestic abuse and even genocide Probing deep into the bedrock of literary imagination Judith Harris traces the odyssey of a diverse group of writers John Keats Derek Walcott Jane Kenyon Michael S Harper Robert Lowell and Ai as well as student writers who have used their writing to work through and past such personal traumas Drawing on her own experience as a poet and teacher Harris shows how the process can be long and arduous but that when exercised within the spirit of one s own personal compassion the results can be limitless Signifying Pain will be of interest not only to teachers of creative and therapeutic writing but also to those with a critical interest in autobiographical or confessional writing more generally The Use of English ,1989 Outdoor America ,1929 The Poetry of Susan Howe W.

Montgomery,2010-09-27 The Poetry of Susan Howe provides a comprehensive survey of the major works of one of America s foremost contemporary poets The book describes the relationship between poetic form and the various configurations of history religious thought and authority in Howe s writing Will Montgomery argues that her highly opaque texts reflect the resistance that the past offers to contemporary investigation Addressing lyric literary history collage and visual poetics The Poetry of Susan Howe is a lucid and persuasive investigation of the volatile movements of this extraordinary body of work
