Le parler populaire des Canadiens français N.-E. Dionne, 2022-12-06 Dans Le parler populaire des Canadiens français N E Dionne explore les spécificités linguistiques et culturelles qui caractérisent le français utilisé par les Canadiens français à travers une analyse détaillée des expressions, des tournures syntaxiques et des idiomes. L'auteur donne un aperçu vivant de la richesse du parler populaire tout en racontant son histoire et son développement. Dionne emploie un style à la fois rudimentaire et accessible rendant son ouvrage attrayant tant pour les linguistes que pour le grand public. Dans le contexte littéraire du début du XXe siècle marqué par une quête d'identité culturelle et linguistique face à l'influence anglophone croissante, ce livre s'inscrit comme une défense et illustration du patrimoine linguistique francophone au Canada. Né en 1866, N E Dionne est un linguiste passionné dont l'engagement envers la langue française se manifeste tout au long de son œuvre. Influencé par le nationalisme canadien français de son époque, il croit que la langue est un pilier fondamental de l'identité culturelle. Dionne a consacré sa vie à l'étude et à la valorisation du français, cherchant à prouver que la langue populaire est aussi riche et complexe que celle de la tradition littéraire. Je recommande vivement Le parler populaire des Canadiens français aux lecteurs désireux de plonger dans la diversité et la vitalité du français nord-américain. Cet ouvrage, à la fois académique et accessible, saura enrichir votre compréhension des dialectes et des usages linguistiques tout en vous offrant une perspective unique sur la culture canadienne française.

Les combattants de 1870-71, 1891 Nouveau dictionnaire roumain-français Frédéric Damé, 1894 Nouveau dictionnaire Roumain-français Frédéric Damé (Ancien Professeur de Littérature Française au Lycée Saint-Sava (Bucarest)), 1893 Dictionary of Louisiana French Albert Valdman, Kevin J. Rottet, 2010 The Dictionary of Louisiana French (DLF) provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present. This dictionary describes the current usage of French speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana: the coastal marshes, the banks of the Mississippi River, the central area, the north, and the western prairie. Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty-four areas in these regions. In addition to the data collected from fieldwork, the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings. The new authoritative resource, the DLF, not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry. Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling, the pronunciation, including attested variants, the part of speech, classification, the English equivalent, and the word's use in common phrases. The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources, and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled. An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in Louisiana.
