Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert, 2022-04-05 An examination of a series of diverse radical and experimental international works from the 1950s to the present What is a literary work In Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert tackles this question by deploying an extended concept of literature examining a series of diverse radical experimental works from the 1950s to the present that occupy the liminal zone between art and literature These works by American Artist Allison Parrish Natalie Czech Stephanie Syjuco Fiona Banner Elfriede Jelinek Dan Graham Robert Barry George Brecht and others represent a pluralized literary practice that imagines a different literature emerging from its elsewheres Investigating a work's coming into being its transition from text to work as a social object and pragmatic category of literary communication Gilbert probes the assumptions and foundations that underpin literature including the ideologies and power structures that prop it up She offers a snapshot from a period of recent literary and art history when such central concepts as originality and authorship were questioned and experimental literary practices ranged from concrete poetry and Oulipo to conceptual writing and appropriation literature She examines works that are dematerialized site specific unique copies of other works and institutional critiques Considering the inequalities exclusions and privileges inscribed in literature she documents the power of experimental literature to attack these norms and challenges the field's canonical geographic boundaries by examining artists with roots in North and South America East Asia and Western and Eastern Europe The cross pollination of literary and art criticism enriches both fields With Literature's Elsewheres Gilbert explores what art can't see about the literary and what literature has overlooked in the arts New Approaches to Crime in French Literature, Culture and Film Louise Hardwick, 2009 The notion of crime crosses generic disciplinary and cultural frontiers In an era of identity fraud eco crime and global terrorism this collection moves towards a reconsideration of crime in the French and Francophone literary and cultural imagination How have our conceptions of criminal behaviour developed How has the French genre of crime fiction encompassing but not limited to the polar the roman policier and film noir evolved and reinvented itself The volume adopts a number of theoretical approaches which range from sociological and criminological discourse to literary criticism and postcolonial theory by Chamoiseau Durkheim Deleuze Foucault Glissant Krafft Ebing and Todorov In a wide ranging series of innovative and challenging readings it examines ideas which include the evolving concept of crime in literature from Voltaire and censorship through to scientific constructions of criminality in the nineteenth century and in the postcolonial era both within and outside metropolitan France The volume also explores textual crimes in contemporary Martinican women's writing crime as a genre in Andr   H  na Serge Arcout and Jean Meckert Sbastien Japrisot and Dominique Manotti and visual responses to crime by artist Jacques Monory and filmmaker Didier Bivel Australian Journal of French Studies, 2003 Overwatch: Tracer--London Calling #2 (French) Mariko Tamaki, 2020-10-14 As Tracer searches for parts to repair the omnic's grid she attracts the attention of two very different omnic leaders Kace who
