remarkable history Its 90 square miles were governed from medieval times by eighteen annually chosen customary tenants ancestors of the people who later prompted Wordsworth s portrayal of the area as a perfect Republic of Shepherds and agriculturalists His fellow poet Robert Southey lived within the Parish for forty years was an active parishioner and rests in St Kentigern s churchyard Here he is given his rightful position as a Lake Poet In the nineteenth century the Victorian state killed off the old parish system sweeping away the egalitarian rule of the Eighteen Men But a degree of redemption was at hand Canon Rawnsley vicar of Crosthwaite from 1883 pledged to defend the Lake District for future generations So the Parish was at the heart of the creation of the National Trust and blazed a trail for a wider movement to preserve the English landscape Writing with a historian s rigour and bearing aloft the banner of the Lake District statesmen Philippa Harrison has produced a magisterial and fascinating record of a parish with a unique social cultural and aesthetic resonance in English history
