Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1920 The Three Sitwells Rodolphe Louis M  groz, 1927 Flight: New and Selected Poems Linda Bierds, 2008-10-02 From this critically acclaimed and award winning poet a stunning volume of new and selected works that display her signature intelligence depth and vigorous originality Hailed as visionary by The New Yorker and radiant by The New York Times Book Review Linda Bierds returns with a collection that gives us the best of her astonishing work and then gives us more the gift of fifteen new poems As a poet she has always shied away from the easy indulgences of confessional poetry turning her attention instead to the things that unite us in our common humanity art science music history and bringing alive people some famous some little known who have made contributions to these spheres The new poems are no less vital transporting the reader from medieval to modern day Venice to the moon from anatomical sketches to primitive mapping and early naturalism returning always to the empathy that guides her work These tightly woven poems are linked organically through repeating imagery reflected and refracted through the prism of Bierds's singularly rich imagination Her language itself communicates just as much as this visuality as Stanley Plumly has said The autobiography of her imagination would only be half as intense were the writing itself less beautiful and clear less perfect to pitch Angel Cloud Poetry II David P. Carlson, 2014-11-04 This book was written for one purpose and one purpose only which is for you to view your life behind yet through this thin veneer of words and phrases stories and allegories all created to blend from within
