Janet Cochrane

The Tourist A New Theory Of The Leisure Class:

The Tourist Dean MacCannell,1999 Nothing short of brilliant Lewis Coser The Tourist Dean MacCannell,2013-08-31 In this classic analysis of travel and sightseeing author Dean MacCannell brings social scientific understandings to bear on tourism in the postindustrial age during which the middle class has acquired leisure time for international travel In The Tourist now with a new introduction framing it as part of a broader contemporary social and cultural analysis the author examines notions of authenticity high and low culture and the construction of social reality around tourism The Tourist Dean MacCannell,1976 The Tourist Dean MacCannell,1989 Tourism Research Methods Brent W. Ritchie,Peter Burns,Catherine Palmer,2005 Within the tourism industry there is a growing consensus on the need for research to investigate the economic social and environmental impacts of tourism However existing research methods texts are based solely on either the business approach or the social science approach to tourism They often fail to provide real world examples of how to plan implement or analyse tourism related research This book aims to address this divide by integrating theory with practice through the inclusion of specific tourism research case studies alongside research theory It considers a wide range of research issues approaches and techniques with contributions from both experienced and new researchers

The Consumption Reader David B. Clarke,Marcus A. Doel,Kate M. L. Housiaux,2003 This reader offers an essential selection of the best work on the Consumer Society It brings together in an engaging surprising and thought provoking way a diverse range of topics and theoretical perspectives Tourism: The Key Concepts Peter Robinson,2012-10-12 Tourism The Key Concepts offers a comprehensive collection of the most frequently used and studied concepts in the subject of tourism Within the text key terms concepts typologies and frameworks are examined in the context of the broader social sciences blending together theory and practice to explore the scope of the subject Terms covered include Ethical Tourism LGBT Tourism Hospitality Mobility Authenticity Quality Management Destination Management Geographies of Tourism Planning Sociology in Tourism Society and Culture Tourism Strategy Each entry contextualises defines and debates the concept discussed providing an excellent starting point for those studying tourism for the first time and a quick reference for those who are more experienced With case studies examples and further reading throughout this text will be invaluable for all undergraduate and postgraduate tourism students Signifying Place Sheila Gaffey,2017-11-28 Through a socio semiotic analysis of promotional materials used by both producers of quality products and their support organizations this book investigates the use of imagery especially images of place in three contrasting regions of Ireland It highlights the role of place particularly rural imagery in the promotion of handcrafts and rural tourism services and suggests some of the meanings which may be contacted through the use of such imagery Much of the research to date in this field has concentrated on the use of imagery to promote particular places rather than products and in an Irish context on the promotion of Ireland as a tourism destination This book focuses on the regional and local level to examine the creation and use of more micro place specific images both real and mythical by small and medium sized businesses and explores the extent to which the two industries borrow from and feed into firstly each other and secondly macro place myths and iconographies
