Gachago,Eunice Ndeti Ivala,2023-05-09 There has been a recent surge of interest in the concept of co teaching and co

research across institutions of HE locally and globally as a response to limited international mobility due to COVID 19 We see co teaching and co research as teaching and research that connects educators and learners across different institutions and different contexts be it across South Africa Africa or the world Co teaching and co research is linked in this book to the term networked learning following the Networked Learning Editorial Collective's emphasis on relationships and collaboration rather than technology and foregrounding our strong commitment to social justice Our collective experiences have shown that co teaching and co research are not easy endeavours especially when they involve differently positioned and differently resourced contexts students and academics While these collaborations are enriching and exciting they need careful support preparation and time for sustained relationship building topics that we find are not necessarily discussed in the literature around co teaching and co research This book is an attempt towards closing this gap in knowledge by providing a range of chapters documenting personal experiences of academics and practitioners engaging in co teaching and co research across the African continent and beyond facilitated by various networked learning tools and technologies Framed by a spirit of sharing and connection the book provides insights into the benefits and challenges of such collaborations affordances of technologies to bridge unequal divides emerging practices of continental collaboration and beyond Additionally the book provides an unusually honest and nuanced view on co teaching and co research across contexts of inequalities foregrounding relationship and community building rather than technology and emphasising the importance of sustained connection and reflection in these collaborations Applying a wide range of critical theoretical frameworks these evidence based but also reflective and reflexive contributions are a unique and important reminder that behind and through our screens we connect as humans who yearn to learn from each other but also need to learn how to learn from each other when we do not share the same world views

Heroes of the Uprising Michael Keigan, 2012-03-06 In 1862 a mere four years after becoming a state the Dakota Uprising was a watershed event that would affect Minnesota at all levels The tenacity and stoicism of the settlers and pioneers would be tested but so too the very survival of the Eastern Dakota and their society all were in the balance The Dakota Uprising was one of the many chapters in the story of the American Indian wars that occurred across the western United States up into the 1890s However the Dakota Uprising was largely overshadowed by a greater conflict that was occurring in the East the Civil War This book this story is an attempt to relay the events surrounding the Uprising before during and immediately after But the author has tried to shift the focus of the story off of the battles slightly and to highlight the heroes that emerged during the Uprising The heroes are well represented on both sides settler and native These heroes in this story both native and settler are highlighted because we need to remember their deeds and the effort they put forth in trying to save themselves their families and their people In our modern society where we spend so much time keeping track of what is going on in exotic places around the globe we sometimes forget the very important history that occurred right in our own backyards Loretta Lynn: Coal Miner's Daughter Loretta Lynn, 2010-09-21 Loretta Lynn's classic memoir tells the story of her early life in Butcher Holler Kentucky and her amazing rise to the top of the music industry Born into deep poverty married at thirteen mother of six and a grandmother by the time she was twenty nine Loretta Lynn went on to become one of the most prolific and influential songwriters and singers in modern country music Here we see the determination and talent that led to her trailblazing career and made her the first woman to be named Entertainer of the Year by the Country Music Association and the first woman to receive a gold record in country music One Wheel, Many

Spokes Lars Christian Clausen, 2004 Presents a story of a man riding a unicycle across America The author tells of his 50 state unicycle trip from the West Coast to the Statue of Liberty and back again He describes his spoke by spoke trek through a Mojave dust storm past breathtaking snow capped Montana mountains and close to a raging hurricane
