The Transition Companion Making Your Community More Resilient In Uncertain Times:

The Transition Companion Rob Hopkins, 2011 Originally published Totnes Devon England Green Books 2011 The Transition Companion Robert Hopkins, 2011 In 2008 the best selling The Transition Handbook suggested a model for a community led response to peak oil and climate change Since then the Transition idea has gone viral across the globe from universities and London neighbourhoods to Italian villages and Brazilian favelas In contrast to the ever worsening stream of information about climate change the economy and resource depletion Transition focuses on solutions on community scale projects and on positive results The Transition Companion picks up the story today describing one of the most fascinating experiments now under way in the world It shows how communities are working for a future where local enterprises are valued and nurtured where lower energy use is seen as a benefit and where cooperation creativity and the building of resilience are the cornerstones of a new economy The first part discusses where we are now in terms of resilience to the problems of rising oil prices climate change and economic uncertainty It presents a vision of how the future might look if we succeed in addressing these issues The book then looks in detail at the process a community in transition goes through drawing on the experience of those who have already embarked on this journey These examples show how much can be achieved when people harness energy and imagination to create projects that will make their communities more resilient The Transition Companion combines practical advice the tools needed to start and maintain a Transition initiative with numerous inspiring stories from local groups worldwide 2052 Jørgen Randers, Jørgen Randers, 2012-05-30 What Will Our Future Look Like We know what we want the world to be like in forty years We know what the world could be like in forty years if we all did what needs to be done to create a more sustainable future The Regeneration Handbook Don Hall, 2024-06-11 Leadership for the Great Transition a changemaker s toolkit for cultivating personal and community resilience The Regeneration Handbook offers an abundance of insights stories tools practices and resources for experienced and aspiring changemakers to step into their full power at this time of unprecedented global crisis By introducing readers to a different kind of activism based on universal patterns of Transformation Expansion Wholeness and Balance it points the way to a truly just and regenerative future Drawing on author Don Hall s experience as a leader in the international Transition Towns Movement as well as the work of dozens of regenerative thinkers and doers across many fields including ecology psychology sociology organizational development and systems thinking this book will help you Better understand our current environmental economic and social polycrisis Develop a holistic and inspiring vision for the future Cultivate the confidence to lead and strengthen inner resilience Work effectively in collaborative groups and organizations Reach beyond the choir to engage people from all walks of life Design and implement practical projects that foster sustainability and justice While none of us can change the world alone we all have an important part to play in the Great Transition By starting wherever we are and leaning into this historic challenge we ll discover our deepest purpose realize our highest potential and learn how to harness the power of regeneration to radically transform our lives our communities and our world Smart, Resilient and Transition Cities Adriana Galderisi, Angela Colucci, 2018-07-17 Smart Resilient and Transition Cities Emerging Approaches and Tools for Climate Sensitive Urban Development starts with a presentation of three widespread Urban Metaphors which are gaining increasing attention from urban planners and decision makers Smart City Resilient City and Transition Towns being all of them focused on the need for enhancing cities capacities to cope with the multiple and heterogeneous challenges threatening contemporary cities and their future development and above all with climate issues Then the Authors provide an overview of current large scale and urban strategies to counterbalance climate change so far undertaken in different geographical contexts Europe United States China Africa and Australia shedding light on the different approaches on the different weights assigned to mitigation and adaptation issues as well as on the main barriers hindering their effectiveness and translation into measurable outcomes Opportunities and criticalities arising from the rich sprawled and blurred landscape of current strategies and initiatives in the face of climate change pave the way to a discussion on the lessons learnt from current initiatives and provide new hints for developing integrated climate strategies capable to guide planners and decision makers towards a climate sensitive urban development Smart Resilient and Transition Cities Emerging Approaches and Tools for Climate Sensitive Urban Development merges a scientific approach with a pragmatic one Through a case study approach the Authors explore strengths and weaknesses of institutional and informal practices to foreshadow innovative paths for an adaptive process of urban governance in the face of climate change The book guides the reader along new governance paths characterized by continuous learning and close cooperation and communication among different actors and stakeholders and in so doing helps them to overcome current siloed approaches to climate issues Links resilience smart growth low carbon urbanism climate friendly cities sustainable development and transition cities being all these concepts crucial to improve effective climate policies Includes a number of case studies showing how cities different in size geographical cultural and economic contexts are currently dealing with climate issues grasping synergies and commonalities arising from current institutional practices and transition initiatives Provides strategic and operative guidelines to overcome barriers and critical issues emerging from current practices promoting cross sectoral approaches to counterbalance climate change Slow Democracy Susan Clark, Woden Teachout, 2012 Reconnecting with the sources of decisions that affect us and with the processes of democracy itself is at the heart of 21st century sustainable communities Slow Democracy chronicles the ways in which ordinary people have mobilized to find local solutions to local problems It invites us to bring the advantages of slow to our community decision making Just as slow food encourages chefs and eaters to become more intimately involved with the production of local food slow democracy encourages us to govern ourselves locally with processes that are inclusive deliberative and citizen powered Susan Clark and Woden Teachout outline the qualities of real local decision making and show us the range of ways that communities are breathing new life into participatory democracy around the country We meet residents who seize back control of their municipal water systems from global corporations parents who find unique solutions to seemingly divisive school redistricting issues and a host of other citizens across the nation who have designed local decision making systems to solve the problems unique to their area in ways that work best for their communities Though rooted in the direct participation that defined our nation s early days slow democracy is not a romantic vision for reigniting the ways of old Rather the strategies outlined here are uniquely suited to 21st century technologies and culture If our future holds an increased focus on local food local energy and local economy then surely we will need to improve our skills at local governance as well

The Human Capacity for Transformational Change Valerie A. Brown, John A. Harris, 2014-02-24 Pressures for transformational change have become a regular feature of most fields of human endeavour Master thinkers and visionaries alike have reframed existing divisions as connecting relationships bringing together as dynamic systems the supposed opposites of parts and wholes stability and change individuals and society and rational and creative thinking This reframing of opposites as interconnected wholes has led to realisation of the power of a collective mind This book offers ways and means of creating the synergies that are crucial in influencing a desired transformational change towards a just and sustainable future It describes how and why our current decision making on any complex issue is marked by clashes between the different interests involved More optimistically the book pursues a mode of thinking that brings together government specialised and community interests at the local regional and personal scales in a collective transformation process Practical examples signal the emergence of a new knowledge tradition that promises to be as powerful as the scientific enlightenment Written in accessible language this book will be insightful reading for anyone struggling with transformational change especially researchers students and professionals in the fields of administration governance environmental management international development politics public health public law sociology and community development

Constructing the Pluriverse Bernd Reiter, 2018-08-23 The contributors to Constructing the Pluriverse critique the hegemony of the postcolonial Western tradition and its claims to universality by offering a set of pluriversal approaches to understanding the coexisting epistemologies and practices of the different worlds and problems we inhabit and encounter Moving beyond critiques of colonialism the contributors rethink the relationship between knowledge and power offering new perspectives on development democracy and ideology while providing diverse methodologies for non Western thought and practice that range from feminist approaches to scientific research to ways of knowing expressed through West African oral traditions In combination these wide ranging approaches and understandings form a new analytical toolbox for those seeking creative solutions for dismantling Westernization throughout the world Contributors Zaid Ahmad Manuela Boatc Hans J rgen Burchardt Raewyn Connell Arturo Escobar Sandra Harding Ehsan Kashfi Venu Mehta Walter D Mignolo Ulrich Oslender Issiaka Ouattara Bernd Reiter Manu Samnotra Catherine E Walsh Aram Ziai

The World Made Otherwise Timothy J. Gorringer, 2018-11-13 Many natural scientists believe climate change will bring civilizational collapse Tim Gorringer argues that behind this threat is a commitment to false values embodied in our political economic and farming systems At the same time millions of people the world over perhaps the majority are committed to alternative values and practices This book explores how these values already foreshadowed in people's movements all over the world can produce different political and economic realities which can underwrite a safe and prosperous future for all

CITY VILLAGE OF TO-MORROW Per Stenholm, 2015-01-12 Do you have the feeling that there might be something fundamentally wrong with the sustainability debate of today Do you have the feeling that we might be tangled up in the discussion and management of sustainability details without comprehending the sustainability of the whole Do you have the feeling that we despite all our orating about sustainability seem to be moving in the opposite direction This is not a book about pollution and climate change It is not a book about sustainable metropolises high tech power solutions of the future or urban vertical gardens It is not a book about miracles It is a book about the very basics of sustainability about the differences and similarities between cities and villages about eco utopian thoughts throughout the ages about an eco utopian vision founded on the conclusions of the earlier chapters and about the sustainability prospects of villages cities and our civilization Read it Per Stenholm MSc architect spatial planning and author of the book Localism and the Design of Political Systems Rick Harmes, 2020-12-30 This book examines localism as a political idea and policy approach and explains what localism is about why it is growing in importance and how it relates to other themes in politics Illustrated with case studies from the United Kingdom mainland Europe and the Indian sub continent the book analyses localism in conceptual and theoretical terms and locates it within the overall landscape of political thought Key themes covered in the book include place space and scale decentralization and devolution multi level governance public value democracy and empowerment and political design With the focus on the bottom up constructivist aspects of localism the book argues that localism is most likely to work successfully in a political order where sovereignty is distributed across various social spheres and levels of government It offers a comprehensive view of localism by synthesizing its various strands and creating a distinctive framework for design and evaluation This book will be of particular interest to scholars students and practitioners of localism particularly within local and regional government public administration and policy human and political geography and urban studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Addressing Global Environmental Challenges from a Peace Ecology Perspective Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Juliet Bennett, Serena Eréndira Serrano Oswald, 2016-10-08 Addressing global environmental challenges from a peace ecology perspective the present book offers peer reviewed texts that build on the expanding field of peace ecology and applies this concept to global environmental challenges in the Anthropocene Hans G nter Brauch Germany offers a typology of time and turning points in the 20th century Juliet Bennett Australia discusses the global ecological crisis resulting from a tyranny of small decisions Katharina Bitzker Canada debates the emotional dimensions of ecological peacebuilding through love of nature Henri Myrntinen UK analyses preliminary findings on gender peacebuilding and climate change in Honduras while Úrsula Oswald Spring Mexico offers a critical review of the policy and scientific nexus debate on the water energy food and biodiversity nexus reflecting on security in Mexico In closing Brauch discusses whether strategies of sustainability transition may enhance the prospects for achieving sustainable peace in the Anthropocene Territorial Policy and Governance Iain Deas, Stephen Hincks, 2017-02-24 In response to both policy and conceptual debates alternative narratives have begun to emerge about territorial governance and policymaking As local and regional policy actors strive to respond to the geographically uneven effects of the economic crises of the early twenty first century a crucial question emerges what are the opportunities and challenges presented by alternative forms of territorially based governance and policy The aim of this edited volume therefore is critically to explore the opportunities and challenges presented by different forms of territorial policy and governance Drawing on conceptual debates and empirical research from the United Kingdom and other international contexts the contributors engage with issues around the politics and governance of territorial development economic development planning and regeneration and the environment Territorial Policy and Governance addresses the question of how alternative forms of territorial governance and policy can help to shape patterns of urban and regional development highlighting the related opportunities constraints and challenges that confront their operationalisation This book will be essential reading for international audiences with an interest in territorial development governance politics human geography and planning and regeneration Designs for the Pluriverse Arturo Escobar, 2018-03-15 In Designs for the Pluriverse Arturo Escobar presents a new vision of design theory and practice aimed at channeling design s world making capacity toward ways of being and doing that are deeply attuned to justice and the Earth Noting that most design from consumer goods and digital technologies to built environments currently serves capitalist ends Escobar argues for the development of an autonomous design that eschews commercial and modernizing aims in favor of more collaborative and placed based approaches Such design attends to questions of environment experience and politics while focusing on the production of human experience based on the radical interdependence of all beings Mapping autonomous design s principles to the history of decolonial efforts of indigenous and Afro descended people in Latin America Escobar shows how refiguring current design practices could lead to the creation of more just and sustainable social orders Practical Spirituality and Human Development Ananta Kumar Giri, 2019-05-15 This book explores varieties of spiritual movements and alternative experiments for the generation of beauty dignity and dialogue in a world where the rise of the religious in politics and the public sphere is often accompanied by violence It examines how spirituality can contribute to human development social transformations and planetary realizations urging us to treat each other and our planet with evolutionary care and respect Trans disciplinary and trans paradigmatic to its very core this text opens new pathways of practical spirituality and humanistic action for both scholarship and discourse and offers an invaluable companion for scholars across religious studies cultural studies and development studies Power from the People Greg Pahl, 2012 This book explores how homeowners co ops nonprofit institutions and other entities are putting power in the hands of local communities through distributed energy programs and energy efficiency measures Using examples from around the nation Pahl explains how to plan and launch community scale energy projects to harvest energy

Exploring Degrowth Vincent Liegey, Anitra Nelson, 2020-08-20 A sense of urgency pervades global environmentalism and the degrowth movement is bursting into the mainstream As climate catastrophe looms closer people are eager to learn what degrowth is about and whether we can save the planet by changing how we live This book is an introduction to the movement As politicians and corporations obsess over growth objectives the degrowth movement demands that we must slow down the economy by transforming our economies our politics and our cultures to live within the Earth's limits This book navigates the practice and strategies of the movement looking at its strengths and weaknesses Covering horizontal democracy local economies and the reduction of work it shows us why degrowth is a compelling and realistic project

From What Is to What If Rob Hopkins, 2019-10-15 Big ideas that just might save the world The Guardian The founder of the international Transition Towns movement asks why true creative positive thinking is in decline asserts that it's more important now than ever and suggests ways our communities can revive and reclaim it In these times of deep division and deeper despair if there is a consensus about anything in the world it is that the future is going to be awful There is an epidemic of loneliness an epidemic of anxiety a mental health crisis of vast proportions especially among young people There's a rise in extremist movements and governments Catastrophic climate change Biodiversity loss Food insecurity The fracturing of ecosystems and communities beyond it seems repair The future to say nothing of the present looks grim But as Transition movement cofounder Rob Hopkins tells us there is plenty of evidence that things can change and cultures can change rapidly dramatically and unexpectedly for the better He has seen it happen around the world and in his own town of Totnes England where the community is becoming its own housing developer energy company enterprise incubator and local food network with cascading benefits to the community that extend far beyond the projects themselves We do have the capability to effect dramatic change Hopkins argues but we're failing because we've largely allowed our most critical tool to languish human imagination As defined by social reformer John Dewey imagination is the ability to look at things as if they could be otherwise The ability that is to ask What if And if there was ever a time when we needed that ability it is now Imagination is central to empathy to creating better lives to envisioning and then enacting a positive future Yet imagination is also demonstrably in decline at precisely the moment when we need it most In this passionate exploration Hopkins asks why imagination is in decline and what we must do to revive and reclaim it Once we do there is no end to what we might accomplish From What Is to What If is a call to action to reclaim and unleash our collective imagination told through the stories of individuals and communities around the world who are doing it now as we speak and witnessing often rapid and dramatic change for the better
