Making Moderate Islam Rosemary R. Corbett,2016-11-23 Drawing on a decade of research into the community that proposed the so called Ground Zero Mosque this book refutes the idea that current demands for Muslim moderation have primarily arisen in response to the events of 9 11 or to the violence often depicted in the media as unique to Muslims Instead it looks at a century of pressures on religious minorities to conform to dominant American frameworks for race gender and political economy These include the encouraging of community groups to provide social services to the dispossessed in compensation for the government's lack of welfare provisions in an aggressively capitalist environment Calls for Muslim moderation in particular are also colored by racist and orientalist stereotypes about the inherent pacifism of Sufis with respect to other groups The first investigation of the assumptions behind moderate Islam in our country Making Moderate Islam is also the first to look closely at the history lives and ambitions of the those involved in Manhattan's contested project for an Islamic community center

Islamic Homosexualities Will Roscoe, Stephen O. Murray, 1997-02-01 The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances Melancholic Modalities Denise Gill,2017-05-01 Denise Gill analyzes how the melancholies intentionally cultivated by Turkish classical musicians typically dismissed as the remnants of Ottoman nostalgia emerge as reparative pleasurable and spiritually redeeming Melancholic Modalities intervenes in debates about music and affect and offers new innovative methodologies of rhizomatic analysis and bi aurality for researchers Religious Diversity and American Religious History Walter H.
