All the Things We Didn't Say Marion Garrard Barnwell, Mary DuBose Trice Clark, 2024-09-16 In this poignant and introspective dual memoir Marion Garrard Barnwell embarks on a deeply personal journey Inspired by the memoir of her maternal grandmother Mary DuBose Trice Clark affectionately known as Ganny the narratives though separated by decades are brought together to offer readers a unique and moving exploration of growing up in Mississippi and the intersections of family motherhood and self discovery Clark s memoir penned in 1956 offers readers a glimpse into the past telling the story of her life in Mississippi with unwavering commitment to just plain facts Her narrative traverses the landscapes of Okalona Nettleton Verona and Tupelo revealing their histories and the vibrant tapestry of her life while artfully sidestepping the complexities of her relationships and emotional vulnerabilities Reflecting on an era when discussions of emotion and self awareness were often shrouded in reticence Clark s story leaves a void in which Barnwell seeks to uncover the unspoken truths that shaped their family dynamics Written at the age of seventy seven the same age as her grandmother when she wrote her memoir Barnwell s writing emerges as a response to the enigmatic silence within her grandmother s narrative It paints a vivid and expansive picture of her own life in the Mississippi Delta while also addressing profound themes of alcoholism racism shared family history and the intricate dynamics between generations of women As Barnwell weaves her own memoir into the fabric of this book she takes readers on her emotional journey of self discovery and truth telling that leads to healing All the Things We Didn't Say Two Memoirs is a testament to the power of storytelling and a captivating ode to the enduring human spirit and the timeless pursuit of understanding the intricate threads that connect us across generations

Inquiring about God: Volume 1, Selected Essays Nicholas Wolterstorff, 2010-02-04 Inquiring about God is the first of two volumes of Nicholas Wolterstorff's collected papers This volume collects Wolterstorff's essays on the philosophy of religion written over the last thirty five years The essays which span a range of topics including Kant's philosophy of religion the medieval or classical conception of God and the problem of evil are unified by the conviction that some of the central claims made by the classical theistic tradition such as the claims that God is timeless simple and impassible should be rejected Still Wolterstorff contends rejecting the classical conception of God does not imply that theists should accept the Kantian view according to which God cannot be known Of interest to both philosophers and theologians Inquiring about God should give the reader a lively sense of the creative and powerful work done in contemporary philosophical theology by one of its foremost practitioners
