The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1887 Railway Signal ,1912 John Howard Payne Papers, 3-Volume Set Rowena McClinton,2022-11 This collection of John Howard Payne s Papers is a significant recovery of firsthand political and social histories of Indigenous cultures particularly the Cherokees a southeastern tribe whose ancestral lands included parts of the present day states of Georgia Alabama Tennessee and North Carolina The papers enable readers to understand how the Cherokees and many other American Indians endured and persevered as they encountered forced removal in the 1830s due to the Indian Removal Act. The papers are also a source of cultural revitalization elucidating the work of Sequoyah a Cherokee genius who in 1821 introduced his syllabary a phonemic system with eighty five symbols. John Howard Payne 1791-1852 an American actor poet and playwright was so taken by the Cherokees story that he lobbied Congress to forgo their removal and wrote articles in contemporary newspapers supporting Cherokees. In 1835 Payne journeyed to the Cherokee Nation and met with John Ross Cherokee chief from 1828 to 1866 who found in Payne a colleague to assist him and other Cherokees with their cause against removal and in preserving their ancient social spiritual and political heritages. Payne gathered and recorded correspondence between Cherokees such as Ross who was fluent in English and U S officials. These papers include multiple correspondences ratified and unratified treaties contemporary newspaper articles and resolutions sent to Congress appealing for justice for the Cherokees. Payne also assembled letters and writings by New England Congregationalist missionaries who resided in mission stations throughout the Cherokee Nation. Available in print for the first time this remarkable repository of information provides a fuller understanding of the political climates Cherokees encountered throughout the early to mid nineteenth century.

Charles H Spurgeon 1834-1892 was one of the most renowned preachers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as well as a prolific writer of evangelical works that have impacted the Christian Church over the past two centuries. His Treasury of David is his classic work on the book of Psalms which was originally published within the pages of his The Sword and The Trowel magazine over a 20 year period from 1865-1885 and then published in its entirety in a classic seven volume set in 1885. The Treasury of David is quite unique in its composition as Spurgeon spent countless hours in libraries searching through the annals of eminent Christian authors throughout Church history for the choice comments he included with each verse of every Psalm such as Jonathan Edwards Augustine Thomas Brooks Martin Luther John Bunyan Athanasius Josephus John Calvin Thomas Goodwin Richard Baxter William Jay John Trapp Richard Hooker William Gurnall and many more. Upon completion of this work Spurgeon comments The Book of Psalms instructs us in the use of wings as well as words. It sets us both mounting and singing. If I may only hope that these volumes will be as useful to other hearts in the reading as to mine in the writing I shall be well rewarded by the prospect. One of Spurgeon's pastoral successors at the Metropolitan Tabernacle Eric Hayden once called this Spurgeon's Magnus Opus and his wife Suzannah remarked that if her husband had never written any other work this would have been a
