

The background of the cover is a vibrant, stylized illustration. In the upper left, a bright sunburst radiates across a sky filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of pink, purple, and blue. Below the sky, a house is depicted with a dark, angular roof and walls. The house's facade is decorated with large, swirling, organic patterns in shades of purple, pink, and blue. The base of the house is a solid green color, suggesting grass or a lawn. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century modernist or expressionist art.

Toni Morrisons A Mercy Critical Approaches:

Toni Morrison's A Mercy Shirley A. Stave, Justine Tally, 2011-08-08 Toni Morrison's ninth novel A Mercy has been received with much acclaim by both the critical and lay reading public. Hailed as her best novel after the award-winning Beloved, most critics to date have concentrated on its setting in the late seventeenth century, a time in which, according to the author herself, slavery was pre-racial, a time before the Terrible Transformation irrevocably linked slavery to skin color or race. Though a slender, easy-to-read novel, A Mercy is in fact a richly layered text full of multiple meanings and possibilities, a work of art that has only just begun to be mined for its critical import. The present volume is the first to deal with these possibilities, presenting a variety of critical approaches that include narrative theory, the eco-critical, the geographical, the allegorical, the Miltonian, the feminist, the metaphorical, and the Lacanian. As such, not only is it conceived to enrich the work of Morrison scholars and students but also to illuminate the use of critical theory in elucidating a complex literary text. A Mercy clamors for close reading and thoughtful interrogation and promises to reward the perceptive reader. Toni Morrison and Literary Tradition Justine Baillie, 2013-09-26 Covering her essays, short stories, and dramatic works as well as her novels, this is a comprehensive study of Morrison's place in contemporary American culture. The Critical Life of Toni Morrison Susan Neal Mayberry, 2021 The first book to trace the critical reception of the great African American woman writer, attending not only to her fiction but to her nonfiction and critical writings. New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Alice Knox Eaton, Maxine Lavon Montgomery, Shirley A. Stave, 2020-07-23 Contributions by Alice Knox Eaton, Mar Gallego, Maxine Lavon Montgomery, Evelyn Jaffe, Schreiber, Shirley A. Stave, Justine Tally, Susana Vega Gonzales, and Anissa Wardi. In her eleventh novel, God Help the Child, Toni Morrison returned to several of the signature themes explored in her previous work: pernicious beauty standards for women, particularly African American women; mother-child relationships; racism and colorism; and child sexual abuse. God Help the Child, published in 2015, is set in the contemporary period, unlike all of her previous novels. The contemporary setting is ultimately incidental to the project of the novel; however, as with Morrison's other work, the story takes on mythic qualities, and the larger-than-life themes lend themselves to allegorical and symbolic readings that resonate in light of both contemporary and historical issues. New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child: Race, Culture, and History a collection of eight essays by both seasoned Morrison scholars as well as new and rising scholars takes on the novel in a nuanced and insightful analysis, interpreting it in relation to Morrison's earlier work as well as locating it within ongoing debates in literary and other academic disciplines engaged with African American literature. The volume is divided into three sections. The first focuses on trauma, both the pain and suffering caused by neglect and abuse as well as healing and understanding. The second section considers narrative choices concentrating on experimentation and reader engagement. The third section turns a comparative eye to Morrison's fictional canon from her debut work of fiction, The Bluest Eye, until the present. These essays build on previous studies of Morrison's novels and deepen readers' understanding of both her last novel and her larger literary output Unruly Narrative Samira Spatzek, 2022-09-06 This study deals with the formative powers of modern liberal ideas of private property. The liberal subject emerged with the formations of European liberalism. Atlantic slavery and settler colonial expansion in the New World. Toni Morrison's A Mercy is thus identified as a key literary text that generates a fundamental critique of the connections between self-making and private property at its 17th-century scene Toni Morrison and the Classical Tradition Tessa Roynon, 2013-10 In this volume Roynon explores Toni Morrison's widespread engagement with ancient Greek and Roman tradition. Combining original and detailed close readings with broader theoretical discussions, she argues that classicism is fundamental to the transformative critique of American culture that Morrison's work effects Toni Morrison Adrienne Lanier Seward, Justine Tally, 2014-08-12 Toni Morrison Memory and Meaning boasts essays by well-known international scholars focusing on the author's literary production and including her very latest works: the theatrical production Desdemona and her tenth and latest novel Home. These original contributions are among the first scholarly analyses of these latest additions to her oeuvre and make the volume a valuable addition to potential readers and teachers eager to understand the position of Desdemona and Home within the wider scope of Morrison's career. Indeed in Home we find a reworking of many of the tropes and themes that run throughout Morrison's fiction, prompting the editors to organize the essays as they relate to themes prevalent in Home. In many ways Morrison has actually initiated paradigm shifts that permeate the essays. They consistently reflect in approach and interpretation the revolutionary change in the study of American literature represented by Morrison's focus on the interior lives of enslaved Africans. This collection assumes black subjectivity rather than argues for it in order to reread and revise the horror of slavery and its consequences into our time. The analyses presented in this volume also attest to the broad range of interdisciplinary specializations and interests in novels that have now become classics in world literature. The essays are divided into five sections, each entitled with a direct quotation from Home and framed by two poems: Rita Dove's The Buckeye and Sonia Sanchez's Aaayeee Babo Aaayeee Babo Aaayeee Babo Traumatic Memory and the Ethical, Political and Transhistorical Functions of Literature Susana Onega, Constanza del Río, Maite Escudero-Alías, 2017-12-01 This volume addresses the construction and artistic representation of traumatic memories in the contemporary Western world from a variety of inter- and trans-disciplinary critical approaches and perspectives ranging from the cultural, political, historical, and ideological to the ethical and aesthetic, and distinguishing between individual, collective, and cultural traumas. The chapters introduce complementary concepts from diverse thinkers including Cathy Caruth, Jacques Derrida, Judith Butler, Homi Bhabha, Abraham and Torok, and Joyce Carol Oates; they also draw from fields of study such as Memory Studies, Theory of Affects, Narrative and Genre Theory, and Cultural Studies. Traumatic Memory and the Political, Economic and Transhistorical Functions of Literature addresses trauma as a culturally embedded phenomenon and deconstructs the idea of trauma as universal, transhistorical, and abstract.

GLOBALISATION AND TRANSITIONAL IDEOLOGIES Ernest L. VEYU, Stephen A. MFORTEH, 2021-11-22 The papers in this volume define the departure from the margin to the centre assess emerging literatures and shifting language concerns dismantle the hegemony of colonial English propose alternatives to the imperialism that underlies globalisation and question hegemonic assumptions in language and literature

Nature and Narrative Markku Lehtimäki, 2025-05-23 The book explores environmental issues in twenty first century Anglophone fiction and how those issues are dealt with by specific literary means It proposes a reciprocal relationship between nature and narrative the idea according to which nature both informs and inspires artistic creations while literary designs and rhetoric also shape our ideas and perceptions of the natural environment It is argued that in order to address design and rhetoric in environmental texts we need a close analysis of those world shaping functions of literary narratives that unite ecocritical and narratological interests The author presents readings of contemporary novels and their varying ways of seeing nature through narrative devices and fictional minds The novels discussed in the book are Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall Toni Morrison's A Mercy Ian McGuire's The North Water Barbara Kingsolver's The Lacuna Paul Harding's Tinkers and Enon J M Coetzee's Elizabeth Costello Ian McEwan's Solar and Jenny Offill's Weather
