That means that a man calls not only his begetter father but also every other man who, according to the tribal regulations, might have married his mother and thus become his father; he calls mother not only the woman who bore him but also every other woman who might have become his mother without violation of the tribal laws; he calls brothers and sisters not only the children of his real parents but also the children of all the persons named who stand in the parental group relation with him and so on. The objects of the taboo are many: 1. direct taboos aim at a protection of important persons: chiefs, priests, etc. and things against harm by safeguarding of the weak: women, children, and common people generally from the powerful mana/magical influence of chiefs and priests; 2. providing against the dangers incurred by handling or coming in contact with corpses; 3. by eating certain food, etc.; 4. guarding the chief acts of life: births, initiation, marriage, and sexual functions against interference; 5. securing human beings against the wrath or power of gods and spirits³⁴ of securing unborn infants and young children who stand in a specially sympathetic relation with their parents from the consequence of certain actions and more especially from the communication of qualities supposed to be derived from certain foods

About Sigmund Freud the Author Freud postulated the existence of libido an energy with which mental process and structures are invested developed therapeutic techniques such as the use of free association in which patients report their thoughts without reservation and in whichever order they spontaneously occur discovered transference the process by which patients displace on to their analysts feelings based on their experience of earlier figures in their lives and established its central role in the analytic process and proposed that dreams help to preserve sleep by representing sensory stimuli as fulfilled wishes that would otherwise awake the dreamer Both were invited to Vienna following the Salzburg Congress and a division of labour was agreed with Brill given the translation rights for Freud's works and Jones who was to take up a post at Toronto University later in the year tasked with establishing a platform for Freudian ideas in North American academic and medical life

Metz, 2025-11-15 The Feeling of the Form explores the concept of Einfuehlung the projection of human feelings and life into inanimate forms developed by German aesthetic theorists in the late nineteenth century The word would be translated into English as empathy and migrate in meaning from the aesthetic to the interpersonal sphere Combining close analysis and cultural par history The Feeling of the Form reads literary texts by Georg Buchner Adalbert Stifter and Rainer Maria Rilke alongside philosophical texts by Robert Vischer Vernon Lee and Theodor Lipps to uncover the often uncanny intersections of aesthetic and interpersonal empathy Traveling both backward and forward in time from the 1873 invention of Einfuehlung Joseph R Metz traces the diverse and multidirectional exchanges among subjects and objects feelings and forms and selves and others that together yield an expanded understanding of Einfuehlung empathy and the connections between them In its surprising juxtapositions The Feeling of the Form also shows how nineteenth and early twentieth century texts prefigure a wide array of later thought including affect theory other minds artificial intelligence object oriented ontology and cinema and video game aesthetics Totem and Taboo Sigmund Freud, 2015-11-16 PRIMITIVE man is known to us by the stages of development through which he has passed that is through the inanimate monuments and implements which he has left behind for us through our knowledge of his art his religion and his attitude towards life which we have received either directly or through the medium of legends myths and fairy tales and through the remnants of his ways of thinking that survive in our own manners and customs Moreover in a certain sense he is still our contemporary there are people whom we still consider more closely related to primitive man than to ourselves in whom we therefore recognize the direct descendants and representatives of earlier man We can thus judge the so called savage and semi savage races their psychic life assumes a peculiar interest for us for we can recognize in their psychic life a well preserved early stage of our own development If this assumption is correct a comparison of the Psychology of Primitive Races as taught by folklore with the psychology of the neurotic as it has become known through psychoanalysis will reveal numerous points of correspondence and throw new light on subjects that are more or less familiar to us For outer as well as for inner reasons I am choosing for this comparison those tribes which have been described by ethnographers as being most backward and wretched the aborigines of the youngest continent namely Australia whose fauna has also preserved for us so much that is archaic and no longer to be found elsewhere Totem and Taboo Sigmund Freud,1918 TOTEM &
