Tourism Grade 11 June Paper 2014:

The Intersection of Star Culture in America and International Medical Tourism Kathy Merlock Jackson, Lisa Lyon Payne, Kathy Shepherd Stolley, 2015-12-24 Celebrity culture health care and travel attract attention in America's media saturated society. These worlds curiously intersect in the study of medical tourism. Although the US touts some of the finest and best known medical facilities in the world, many jet-setting A-list celebrities who can well afford the finest of health care seek treatment far away from home, popularizing international sites, physicians and procedures. These travelers whose every move is chronicled by the media both reflect and influence health care concerns in America. An analysis of these high-profile cases of celebrities with both life-threatening and non-life-threatening conditions sheds light on the link between medical tourism and celebrity, showing how health care and entertainment intersect and the American public responds. The Intersection of Star Culture in America and International Medical Tourism Celebrity Treatment argues that celebrity cases and media content drive awareness of medical tourism among Americans at a time when the medical system is under intense scrutiny. By popularizing international sites for treatment, procedures not available in the US and different approaches to patient care, media narratives present options for health care, triggering dialogue on one of America's most important human welfare issues.

Qualitative Methods in Tourism Research Wendy Hillman, Kylie Radel, 2018-01-05 This volume seeks to expose and illustrate new approaches and thinking in qualitative methods that are being developed and implemented in tourism research. The contributions bring together various qualitative methods and approaches while also providing suggestions for the juxtaposition of qualitative and quantitative methods in mixed methods research. The book has been written with a cross-disciplinary approach which provides an insight into the art of research development from business, sociology and tourism perspectives. The chapters provide readers with a context and practical application examples for each method. They present a distinctive opportunity for social researchers from a range of disciplines in particular tourism to examine how to adapt the wide variety of qualitative approaches to their particular research needs.

Heritage, Screen and Literary Tourism Sheela Agarwal, Gareth Shaw, 2017-11-15 This book examines the main issues and concepts relating to heritage, screen and literary tourism (HSLT) and provides a comprehensive understanding and evaluation of these three forms of tourism in the context of global tourism development. It analyses the demand and supply of HSLT within the frameworks provided by service dominant logic and value creation to enable a critical perspective on how HSLT tourist experiences are created, produced and shaped. The volume explores the challenges which relate to the role of the consumer in the co-creation of the tourist experience and the implications this has for the development, marketing, interpretation, consumption, planning and management of HSLT. It will appeal to researchers and students of heritage tourism, film and literary tourism, media-driven tourism, tourism planning and destination development and management.
