Persuasion in Tourism Discourse Elena Manca,2016-12-14 Tourism is more than just a leisure or professional activity it can be considered the representation and discovery of the cultural identity of a country The concepts and the words which are selected to promote a tourist destination as well as the accompanying images and the way these modes of communication are organized in a website inevitably reflect more than just a promotional aim They mainly represent those social and cultural choices which are peculiar to each country and to each culture and which are for this reason particularly worth investigating This book proposes an original approach to the study of tourism discourse by combining several methodologies and models Halliday s systemic functional grammar Kress and van Leeuwen s visual grammar the AIDA model the corpus linguistics approach Hall and Hofstede s models and the theories of the universals of translation The result of this new and complex methodological approach is a detailed linguistic and socio cultural overview of the most common strategies of persuasion adopted in the tourism discourses of countries such as Italy Great Britain and Australia This book will be useful for academics working in the field of multimodal analysis corpus linguistics cross cultural marketing and cross cultural studies and for students of tourism communication and marketing studies Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Language of Environment, Environment of Language Peter Mühlhäusler,2003 M uhlh ausler has designed a text for use both as an introduction to the growing field of ecolinguistics and to add a linguistic perspective to environmental studies environmental impact planning ecotourism and philosophy Voluntourism and Language Learning/Teaching Larissa Semiramis Schedel,Cori Jakubiak,2023-12-28 This edited volume extends current voluntourism theorizing by critically examining the intersections among various forms of work leisure travel and language learning teaching The book s contributors investigate volunteer tourism and its cognates such as working holidaymaking international internships and gap year labor as discursive fields in which powerful ideas about language s their speakers and pedagogical practices are propagated worldwide The various authors chapters shed light on the hegemony of global English the social consequences of linguistic commodification and neoliberal rationalities the ways in which speaker identity positions can alter the exchange value of languages and how language competencies are tied to power in the labor market among related topics This volume will be of interest to readers in Applied Linguistics Critical Sociolinguistics Educational and Linguistic Anthropology Tourism and Leisure Studies Migration and Mobility Studies and Language Teaching and Learning English Tourism Discourse Stefania M. Maci,2020-10-26T00:00:00+01:00 In the last few decades the rapid growth of the demand supply processes in the travel sector has caused a dramatic development of the tourism industry In order to sell the same product to different targets and on different markets tourist organizations need to develop different genres presenting the same content with the same illocutionary purpose This is linguistically attained thanks to the elaboration of professional promotional and digital forms of discourse which employ rhetorical strategies complying with the use of particular lexical items specific syntactical structures and precise textual levels of the language employed By combining corpus linguistics and genre analysis this volume aims to investigate if and to what extent tourism discourse dynamically reflects those new societal trends that have caused any development of the tourism industry The results suggest that tourism discourse seems to have developed new linguistic strategies in both specialized and promotional purposes characterized by the rise of a new hypertextual mode of communication euphorically describing the destination and conveying the idea that tourists are solely responsible for their choice of off the beaten track destination This volume primarily aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students may also be of interest to any researchers or scholars interested in tourism discourse from a sociosemiotics perspective and discourse analysis The corpus based approach makes this the ideal introduction for all students and scholars interested in tourism discourse Success Stories of Malaysia's Global Reach and CLMV Programme Shukran Abdul Rahman, Munir Shuib, 2018

Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association, 2008 Culture Lab 1 Brian Boigon, 1993 Symposium events of the Culture Lab I a multidisciplinary symposium that was held in 1991 at the Rivoli Night Club in Toronto Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Topographies of Globalization Valur Ingimundarson, Kristín Loftsdóttir, Irma Erlingsdóttir, 2004 The term globalization has been used to describe the intensification of cross border flows whether in the realm of ideas culture finance trade or human mobility Like many other vital ideas such as nationalism and modernization globalization is fraught with controversy But no matter where one stands it is a site of an ongoing intellectual endeavor of definition interpretation and redefinition a contested terrain that continues to have profound if unequal impact on people's lives around the world Given the inherent tension between the global and local this phenomenon is perhaps more accurately explained by the conceptual hybrid globalization The diverse contributions in this volume are an attempt to come to grips with some of the implications of this process by problematizing and engaging it It grew out of an interdisciplinary conference on globalization held at the University of Iceland in late autumn 2002 as part of an international research project coordinated by GERM Groupe d'Etudes et de Recherches sur les Mondialisations involving a large group of academics universities and institutions The volume emphasizes specific aspects of the globalization debate politics culture gender and language translation One focus articulated among others by Zygmunt Bauman is on the reconfigurations of political power relationships between the West and the Rest the war on terror and conflict resolution whether in the name of peacekeeping nation building or identity changes Another theme involves the problematization of the culture concept its place in the public domain and the redefinition of identities as a result of globalization A third aspect deals with attempts to illuminate how globalization processes may deepen gender class and race inequalities in the absence of binding rules and collective social responsibility Finally the focus is on the changing attitudes toward language translation in a heavily mediatized and accelerated world
