

The background of the entire slide is a photograph of a person in silhouette, standing on a grassy hill and playing a trumpet. The person is facing right, towards a bright sun that is low on the horizon, creating a lens flare effect. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, and there are some trees visible on the left side of the frame.

Toward Spiritual Sovereignty

A Secular Bible

John W. Casperson

"Make your own Bible. Select and collect all the words and sentences that in all your readings have been to you like the blast of a trumpet." - American Essayist and poet, Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1882)

Toward Spiritual Sovereignty A Secular Bible:

Toward Spiritual Sovereignty John W. Casperson, 2007-06 What does a 28 year old Marine officer serving active duty in the War In Iraq do when he receives word that his father has terminal cancer He combines a life goal of riding his bicycle across the United States coast to coast with a fundraising effort to benefit cancer research and raise awareness He unites with four others three of whom are in their 60 s and one in his early 40 s and sets out to cover 3 400 miles of challenging terrain in 31 days This is a story about 5 men who pursue a mission with good will faith and high hopes Along the way they experience intense physical pain a mental challenge unlike anything they ve ever experienced and more adversity than they bargained for These pages will take you on the ride with this diverse group and you ll share in their experiences as they come to better understand who they are as individuals their personal limits and what really matters in life Come share in their journey as they set out to inspire people but end up being inspired by the many kind people they met along the way

Reading Scripture as a Political Act Matthew A. Tapie, Daniel Wade McClain, 2015-11-01 Although scholars increasingly understand Scripture to contain political dimensions and implications the interpretation of Scripture is often marginalized in most scholarly discussions of political theology Reading Scripture as a Political Act takes a step toward remedying this situation by exploring some of the ways the church has read Scripture politically In particular this volume examines the political character of premodern and modern theologians readings of Scripture with attention to how their readings relate to or address political challenges in their particular social and historical settings The essays attempt to illuminate the ways that the theological interpretation of Scripture shaped the theopolitical imaginations of Augustine Basil of Caesarea Bonaventure Thomas Aquinas Bartolome de las Casas John Wesley Karl Barth Henri de Lubac and John Howard Yoder among others Several essays in the volume also take constructive steps and suggest how these models of reading Scripture can inform the contemporary task of reading Scripture in political contexts The volume covers the earliest Christian centuries to the late modern era and considers carefully the close coordination between Scripture theology and social and political concerns As a whole the collection provides a robust survey of Christian theopolitical interpretation of the Bible The Invention of Jewish Theocracy Alexander Kaye, 2020 The Invention of Jewish Theocracy explains why the idea of halakhic state a demand that Israel should be governed by the law of the Torah emerged what happened after it initially failed to take hold and how it has regained popularity in recent decades provoking a schism between secular politics and religious fundamentalism The book engages with contemporary debates on global human rights the role of religion in Middle East conflict and the long term consequences of European imperialism Philosophy of Education J.J. Chambliss, 2013-07-04 First Published in 1996 This first of its kind Encyclopaedia charts the influence of philosophic ideas that have had the greatest influence on education from Ancient Greece to the present It covers classical thinkers as Plato Augustine Hypatia Locke and Rousseau as well as recent figures such as Montessori Heldegger Du Bois and Dewey It illuminates time hounded ideas and concepts such as
