Livers, 2008 Using Technology to Increase Student Learning Linda E. Reksten, 2000-03-20 All across the country teachers superintendents directors of curriculum and especially principals are being pressured to develop quality technology programs Business leaders consider technological expertise to be mandatory for success in the workplace parents feel technology training is as basic as reading writing and arithmetic And here is the first step toward a solution a practical jargon free pathway for principals to create the best possible environment for implementing and teaching technology including a detailed exploration of the principal s role in leadership curriculum planning and implementation A must for education in the 21st century Includes a list of related Web sites and a glossary of technical terms James Bellanca, 2011-11-01 Translate standards based content into enriched learning projects that build 21st century skills A valuable tool for teachers this book uses an enriched learning projects model to develop student skills in communication collaboration critical thinking creativity and global and cross cultural awareness It highlights e tools that enhance projects and presents research based instructional strategies that engage students

Practices That Promote Innovation for Talented Students Nyberg, Julia, Manzone, Jessica A., 2023-11-24 Pedagogy for talented students is a widely discussed area in the field of gifted education Much debate exists over the instruction required to meet the unique learning needs of the gifted The learning experiences focused on the strategies of yesterday are no longer sufficient to address the thinking demanded by the innovations of tomorrow Interdisciplinary connections are a critical component of innovation and must be a cornerstone of learning for the gifted Innovation requires interdisciplinary thinking that is adaptable and not anchored to a specific context Practices That Promote Innovation for Talented Students curates cutting edge high leverage practices that develop innovation and inquiry in talented learners and highlights the belief that the future of education requires a shift from teacher centered strategies to student centered high leverage practices that are interdisciplinary and function across educational contexts Covering key topics such as teaching advocacy creative thinking and student learning communities this reference work is ideal for industry professionals policymakers administrators researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Teaching 101 Jeffrey Glanz, 2009-04-21 With helpful hints on lesson planning classroom management student assessment and more this resource provides essential knowledge and activities that novice teachers need to become exceptional Faculty Development on a Shoestring Diane D. Chapman, Michelle E. Bartlett, 2024-03-01 Faculty development is essential for promoting excellence in teaching and research supporting institutional goals and creating a culture of continuous learning that benefits both faculty members and students However educational institutions do not always allocate adequate resources towards supporting their faculty's professional development especially from the institutional level Underfunding this support can lead to the inability to attend conferences to keep up with the latest research and pedagogical practices in their fields the inability to conduct meaningful research and lack of access to modern technologies This in turn can limit faculty growth and harm student learning outcomes Ultimately faculty who do not feel supported by their institutions can become disengaged or leave This book attempts to address the needs of faculty from institutions where there may not be adequate resources to support robust faculty development activities The chapters are written by faculty development experts in the US and Europe who understand the disparities between institutions and want to share programs that can be implemented for little or no cost Each chapter provides objective content implementation and evaluation details that can be used to replicate the program at other institutions The hope is to begin to level the playing field in faculty development through sharing successful low resource programs with proven outcomes
