BOOK JACKET The Perfect Prey Jeroen Smit, 2010-01-07 On 9 October 2007 the Royal Bank of Scotland RBS celebrated its leading role in the biggest deal in banking history a record 71 billion euros for Dutch bank ABN Amro Searching for an immediate profit the victors dismantled ABN Amro and Holland's number one bank ceased to exist Shareholders and management enjoyed the spoils and the Netherlands lost the bank that had been at the heart of their economy for 183 years But the profits were an illusion they simply weren't there One year later RBS had been forced into the largest rights issue in British corporate history underwritten by the Government So why was ABN Amro so toxic On the basis of more than 120 conversations with the most important individuals involved Jeroen Smit reconstructs the downfall of a Dutch institution a bank whose rotten core was so disguised by paper profits of billions every year In little more than a decade one of Europe's largest longest established banks went from powerful predator to the perfect prey Marine Insurance in the Netherlands 1600-1870 Sabine Go, 2009 Marine insurance has been of great importance to the expansion of long distance trade and economic growth in the early modern period in particular for seafaring nations such as the Dutch Republic The Amsterdam market became Europe's leading insurance market and within the Republic other insurance systems also emerged Little is known about the differing institutional frameworks governing these industries and the interaction between the institutions and the actors in the industry This study examines the development of marine insurance in the Netherlands in Amsterdam Rotterdam and the province of Groningen from c 1600 to 1870 from an institutional point of view It examines how the behavior of authorities insurers underwriters and brokers was affected by the formal and informal constraints of the industry and how in turn their conduct has influenced the institutional framework and induced institutional change Three insurance systems in the Netherlands each with its own distinctive characteristics and the interaction between institutions and actors is examined By examining developments over a period of two and half centuries the path of long term institutional change becomes discernable Colonial Switzerland P. Purtschert, H. Fischer-Tiné, 2015-05-26 States without former colonies it has been argued were intensely involved in colonial practices This anthology looks at Switzerland which by its very strong economic involvements with colonialism its doctrine of neutrality and its transnationally entangled scientific community constitutes a perfect case in point The Low Countries Stichting Ons Erfdeel, 2001 De kredietcrisis Jasper Blom, 2010 In september 2008 balanceren mondiale financiële markten aan de rand van de afgrond na het failliet van de Amerikaanse zakenbank Lehman Brothers Hoewel een totale meltdown van het financiële systeem voorkomen kon worden leidde de zogenoemde kredietcrisis tot de grootste economische recessie sinds de Grote Depressie van 1929 Deze bundel analyseert de oorzaken van de kredietcrisis vanuit een politiek economisch perspectief en plaatst de crisis in de context van langer lopende ontwikkelingen zoals de mondiale expansie van financiële markten De bijdragen aan deze bundel laten zien dat de wisselwerking tussen financiële beleidsmakers en marktpartijen vaak onbedoeld de processen in gang zette die tot de crisis leidden Juist nu beleidsmakers en bankiers zich opnieuw afvragen welke kant het op moet met het financiële systeem levert de politiek economische invalshoek van deze bundel met zowel aandacht voor economische ontwikkelingen als voor regulering een waardevolle bijdrage De levenskracht der bevolking Jan Kok,J. van Bavel,2010 Ten onrechte zo blijkt uit

Rotterdamse juristen uit vijf eeuwen G. Chr Kok,2009 Securities at Risk Jaap Barendregt,2004 The end of the 1990s saw a renewed interest in the theft of Jewish owned securities in the Netherlands by the German occupying forces during World War II the controversial role that the exchange played in the sale of the securities and the subsequent restitution of rights following liberation Research showed that the post war restitution process was incomplete particularly as far as the restitution of securities rights was concerned The final report of the Scholten Committee published in December 1999 revealed serious shortcomings in the process of restitution largely due to the actions of the most important representative of the stock market at that time the Amsterdam Stock Exchange Association Vereniging voor de Effectenhandel In response to the Scholten Committee report in 2000 the Amsterdam Stock Exchange Association which by that time was in liquidation and Amsterdam Exchanges its successor at that time together with the Netherlands Bankers Association reached agreement on compensation with representatives of Jewish institutions with the aim of completing the restitution of securities rights Part of this agreement was that the exchange organizations and Jewish institutions should jointly publish this book on events affecting Jewish owned securities that took place during and after the occupation and the role played by the then Amsterdam Stock Exchange Association using the Scholten Committee s final report as a guide The result is an accessible book for non specialists Geld, geloof en goede vrienden Laura van Hasselt,2023-01-09 De
