werewolf films from The Werewolf 1913 to Wildling 2018 via The Wolf Man 1941 The Curse of the Werewolf 1961 The Howling 1981 and WolfCop 2014 Revealing the significance of the wolves and wolf men as evolving metaphors for the cultural fears and anxieties of their times Phases of the Moon serves as a companion and a counterpoint to existing scholarship on the werewolf in popular culture and illustrates how we can begin to understand one of our oldest mythical monsters as a rich and diverse cultural metaphor

Zombie Theory Sarah Juliet Lauro, 2017-10-15 Zombies first shuffled across movie screens in 1932 in the low budget Hollywood film White Zombie and were reimagined as undead flesh eaters in George A Romero's The Night of the Living Dead almost four decades later Today zombies are omnipresent in global popular culture from video games and top rated cable shows in the United States to comic books and other visual art forms to low budget films from Cuba and the Philippines The zombie's ability to embody a variety of cultural anxieties ecological disaster social and economic collapse political extremism has ensured its continued relevance and legibility and has precipitated an unprecedented deluge of international scholarship Zombie studies manifested across academic disciplines in the humanities but also beyond spreading into sociology economics computer science mathematics and even epidemiology Zombie Theory collects the best interdisciplinary zombie scholarship from around the world Essays portray the zombie not as a singular cultural figure or myth but show how the undead represent larger issues the belief in an afterlife fears of contagion and technology the effect of capitalism and commodification racial exclusion and oppression dehumanization As presented here zombies are not simple metaphors rather they emerge as a critical mode for theoretical work With its diverse disciplinary and methodological approaches Zombie Theory thinks through what the walking undead reveal about our relationships to the world and to each other Contributors Fred Botting Kingston U Samuel Byrland U of Canberra Gerry Canavan Marquette U Jeffrey Jerome Cohen George Washington U Jean Comaroff Harvard U John Comaroff Harvard U Edward P Comentale Indiana U Anna Mae Duane U of Connecticut Karen Embry Portland Community College Barry Keith Grant Brock U Edward Green Roosevelt U Lars Bang Larsen Travis Linnemann Eastern Kentucky U Elizabeth McAlister Wesleyan U Shaka McGlotten Purchase College SUNY David McNally York U Tayla Nyong'o Yale U Simon Orpana U of Alberta Steven Shavero Wayne State U Ola Sigurdson U of Gothenburg Jon Stratton U of South Australia Eugene Thacker The New School Sherryl Vint U of California Riverside Priscilla Wald Duke U Tyler Wall Eastern Kentucky U Jen Webb U of Canberra Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock Central Michigan U

Body and Text: Cultural Transformations in New Media Environments David Callahan, Anthony Barker, 2019-08-10 This book presents a collection of academic essays that take a fresh look at content and body transformation in the new media highlighting how old hierarchies and canons of analysis must be revised The movement of narratives and characterisations across forms conventionally understood as adaptation has commonly involved high status classical forms drama epic novel being transformed into recorded and broadcast media film radio and television or from the older recorded media to the newer ones The advent of convergent digital platforms has further transformed hierarchies and the formation of global conglomerates has created the commercial conditions for ever more lucrative exchanges between different media. Now source texts can move in any direction and take up any configuration as emerging interacting fan bases drive innovation and new creative and commercial possibilities are deployed. Moreover, transformation may be not just a technology driven creative practice and response but at the very centre of the thematic worlds developed in those forms of story telling which are currently popular: television series, video games, films and novels. The magic transformation of your money into their money is paralleled in contemporary media and culture by the centrality of transformation of one product to another as a media industry practice as well as the transformation of bodies as a major theme both in the ensuing media products and in people's identity practices in daily life.
