Moral Conversion in Scripture, Self, and Society Krijn Pansters, Anton ten Klooster, 2024-06-04 Moral Conversion in Scripture Self and Society offers a broad historical theological and philosophical reflection on the phenomenon of moral conversion Examining life changing transformations within trajectories of spiritual and moral growth the contributors to this volume show how individuals move or should move in one way or another away from the pursuit of solipsistic satisfactions through the practice of self awareness and the performance of social attentiveness toward the prioritization of shared values Together they address the difficulty of realizing in selves and societies some sort of definitive moral conversion of final turn toward the truly good Contributors are David Couturier Matthew Dugandzic Erik Eynikel Aaron Gies Patrick Jones Angela Knobel Daniel Lightsey Peter Lovas Giulia Lovison Krijn Pansters Hanna Roose Anton ten Klooster Willem Marie Speelman Mark Therrien Luke Togni Brian Treanor Louke van Wensveen Archibald van Wieringen and Jamie Washam Naturally Human, Supernaturally God Adam G. Cooper, 2014 Naturally Human Supernaturally God focuses upon a theological subject matter whose provenance not only spans both periods of the twentieth century but the whole history of Christianity It seeks to open a small window upon an odd case of theological convergence between three of the most diverse yet important theologians of the pre Conciliar period each of whom played a vital role in the Second Vatican Council Reginald Garrigou Lagrange O P Karl Rahner S J and Henri de Lubac S J It is widely acknowledged that the differences between these three figures and the traditions subsequently associated with them sometimes run so deep as to defy resolution Yet this book will argue they were strangely united in a shared conviction today s Church urgently needs to renew its acquaintance with an ancient Christian theme namely the doctrine of deification Only in a self transcending supernaturally wrought participation in the life of God do human beings reach their proper fulfillment These three theologians are significant figures in the modern recovery of the doctrine of deification receiving its official adumbration in the Christocentric and Trinitarian anthropological vision outlined in Vatican II s Pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes This book tells the story of that recovery and the contribution these rather different theologians played adding an oft neglected stream to the contemporary discussion of this important topic The Sense of Mystery: Clarity and Obscurity in the Intellectual Life Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange, O.P., 2018-05-01 The Sense of Mystery highlights what is clear and what retains the character of mystery in the traditional and Thomistic solution concerning the great problems pertaining to our knowledge in general to our knowledge of God whether naturally or supernaturally attained and to questions pertaining to grace St Thomas has fear neither for logic nor for mystery Indeed logical lucidity leads him to see in nature those mysteries that speak in their own particular ways of the Creator Likewise this same lucidity aids him in putting into strong relief other secrets of a far superior order those of grace and of the intimate life of God which would remain unknown were it not for Divine Revelation A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020-05-05 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity s expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a
