Universal Declaration of Human Rights United Nations,2016-01-13 The UDHR was proclaimed by the United Nations General Assembly in Paris on 10 December 1948 and was forged by representatives of different legal and cultural backgrounds from all the globe It is a milestone document in the history of human rights and have sacramented for the first time fundamental rights to be protected all over the world At a time when we are faced with so many human rights violations we hope that this publication be useful to students and legal professionals and also to the lay public      A World Made New Mary Ann Glendon,2001-03-30 FINALIST FOR THE ROBERT F KENNEDY BOOK AWARD An important potentially galvanizing book and in this frightful ferocious time marked by war and agony it is urgent reading Blanche Wiesen Cook Los Angeles Times Unafraid to speak her mind and famously tenacious in her convictions Eleanor Roosevelt was still mourning the death of FDR when she was asked by President Truman to lead a controversial commission under the auspices of the newly formed United Nations to forge the world's first international bill of rights. A World Made New is the dramatic and inspiring story of the remarkable group of men and women from around the world who participated in this historic achievement and gave us the founding document of the modern human rights movement. Spurred on by the horrors of the Second World War and working against the clock in the brief window of hope between the armistice and the Cold War, they grappled together to articulate a new vision of the rights that every man and woman in every country around the world should share regardless of their culture or religion. A landmark work of narrative history based in part on diaries and letters to which Mary Ann Glendon, an award-winning professor of law at Harvard University, was given exclusive access. A World Made New is the first book devoted to this crucial turning point in Eleanor Roosevelt's life and in world history. Making Sense of Human Rights James W. Nickel, 1987. This fully revised and extended edition of James Nickel's classic study explains and defends the contemporary conception of human rights. Combining philosophical, legal, and political approaches, Nickel explains international human rights law and addresses questions of justification and feasibility. New revised edition of James Nickel's classic study. Explains and defends the conception of human rights found in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 1948, and subsequent treaties in a clear and lively style. Covers fundamental freedoms, due process rights, social rights, and minority rights. Updated throughout to include developments in law, politics, and theory since the publication of the first edition. New features for this edition include an extensive bibliography and a chapter on human rights and terrorism.
