The University In Translation Internationalizing Higher Education:

The University in Translation Suzy Harris, 2011-01-13 In recent years interest in schools outreach and academic enrichment has increased dramatically reflecting a greater social conscience and awareness of the impact that universities can have on the wider community The transferable skills that academics bring to schools need to be honed for this new learning environment as delivery methods and success benchmarks are radically different in a schools context This collection addresses the numerous issues raised when arts and humanities academics become involved with schools bringing together practitioners from a broad range of fields within the arts and humanities to share experiences and insights The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Internationalization of Higher Education in the Global South Juliet Thondhlana, Evelyn Chiyevo Garwe, Hans de Wit, Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila, Futao Huang, Wondwosen Tamrat, 2020-12-10 This Handbook covers a wide range of historical perspectives realities research and practice of internationalization of higher education IHE in the global south and makes comparisons to IHE issues in the global north Drawing on the expertise of 32 academics and policy makers based in and originating from four key regions of focus Sub Saharan Africa North Africa and the Middle East Asia Pacific Latin America and the Caribbean Across 24 chapters the editors and contributors provide a diverse and unparalleled expose of the status and future aspirations of institutions and nations in relation to IHE This is the first comprehensive analysis of this growing field and expands the scope of research in the field of comparative and international education in terms of theory and policy development Includes 36 chapters written by Hadiza Kere Abdulrahman Salem Abodher Giovanni Anzola Pardo Aref Al Attari Norzaini Azman Teklu Abate Bekele Abdellah Benahnia Andr s Bernasconi Daniela Craciun Hans de Wit Futao Huang Jocelyne Gacel vila Evelyn Chiyevo Garwe Javier Gonz lez Gifty Oforiwaa Gyamera Xiao HAN Mohamed Salah Harzallah Bola Ibrahim Annette Insanally Sunwoong Kim Aliya Kuzhabekov Kamel Mansi Simon McGrath Francisco Marmolejo Georgiana Mihut Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni Ibrahim Ogachi Oanda Bandele Olusola Oyewole Rakgadi Phatlane Francisca Puyol Laura E Rumbley Chika T Sehoole Wenqin SHEN Luz Inmaculada Madera Soriano Wondwosen Tamrat Juliet Thondhlana Julie Vardhan Chang Da Wan Anthony Welch Ayenachew A Woldegiyorgis Ren e Zicman Internationalizing Higher Education with National Characteristics: Similar Global Trends but Different Responses Min Hong, 2022-08-25 In an era of globalization internationalization of higher education IHE has been constructed as an almost inevitable trend and has become a common pursuit of many nations in their higher education HE policies This book focuses on two nations China and Australia in terms of this trend The broadest aim of this book was to find out the interactive relationships between global and national pressures in policy development by comparing the international HE policies in China and Australia The three categories overarching meta policies at the macrolevel nation institution focused policies at the mesolevel universities and people focused policies at the microlevel individuals are documented and analyzed Similarities and differences are identified Similarities include promoting and deepening IHE as one important agenda in national policies at the macrolevel in the two nations promoting transnational cooperation in the provision of HE at the mesolevel as well as increasing international student numbers and encouraging an outflow of student learning and exchanges at the microlevel Differences include China's soft power initiatives and Australia's appeal for the sustainability of international HE as a national priority in the area of IHE at the macrolevel the focus on World Class Universities construction in China and strengthening the overall HE system in Australia and different issues in relation to people mobility and brain circulation specifically encouraging more outflow of students and attracting more inflow of talents and international students in China and over reliance on international students financially in Australia It is suggested that different responses to the global trends reflect the specificities of each nation and the ways path dependent factors mediate global pressures This comparison will facilitate a better understanding of how globalization has affected and been responded to in IHE policies and enable a better understanding of their path dependent mediation through a focus on two specific sets of national policies

Internationalizing Higher Education Peter Ninnes, Meeri Hellstén, 2006-01-20 Globalization is a multifaceted phenomenon and one of its major components is the internationalization of education The increasing pace and complexity of global knowledge flows and the accelerating exchange of educational ideas practices and policies are important drivers of globalization Higher Education is a key site for these flows and exchanges This book casts a critical eye on the internationalization of higher education It peels back taken for granted practices and beliefs explores the gaps and silences in current pedagogy and practices and addresses the ambiguities tensions and contradictions in internationalization In this volume scholars from a range of disciplines and regions critically examine the co modification of higher education teaching and support for international students international partnerships for aid and trade and the impacts on academics work

Measuring University Internationalization Catherine

Yuan Gao,2019-08-07 This book investigates university internationalization in different national contexts and compares internationalization performance across national boundaries Internationalization has been recognised by policymakers as the key to perform successfully within the new global context the author identifies primary motivations for universities to embrace this agenda and deconstructs the phenomenon into measurable dimensions and components Using extensive qualitative data from university leaders and practitioners this book analyses the global forces that shape the international education landscape and reviews the existing instruments for measuring internationalization In doing so the author proposes an integrated understanding of university internationalization and indicates benchmarks that can help to quantify and measure this phenomenon This book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of university internationalization

Decolonizing the Internationalization of Higher Education in the Global South Kleber Aparecido da Silva,Lauro Sérgio Machado Pereira,2023-12-22 This book reconceives the internationalization of higher education from the perspective of Global South researchers empowering and giving visibility to this discourse Challenging the first assumptions of internationalization of higher education IHE as something overwhelmingly positive due to the way it directly impacts the university activities and their world rankings it instead takes a critical perspective acknowledging that this process is associated with a neoliberal and colonial orientation that focuses on the maintenance of historically sustained hierarchy oppressive relations that stimulate the production of knowledge and education as a commodity and not as a factor of social transformation As such it challenges recent trends toward an increase in internationalization strategies within higher education that privilege Global North outgoing mobilities and research collaborations to sustain the position of the educational institutions in the international rankings From this locus IHE is seen not only to evolve in the fields of teaching research and service of an educational institution but also to boost the world s social development The book thus illustrates how IHE should be guided by Critical Applied Linguistics CAL and Global South s principles applied linguistics praxis critical thinking micro and macro relations critical social inquiry critical theory problematizing givens self reflexivity preferred futures and heterosis Comprising chapters that discuss academic political and administrative issues arising specifically from the internationalization process of Global South higher education institutions as well as themes such as critical language education and language policies it will appeal to faculty researchers and scholars with interests in higher education international and comparative education and the decolonization of education

The Evolving Curriculum in Interpreter and Translator Education David B. Sawyer, Frank Austermühl, Vanessa Enríquez Raído,2019-06-15 The Evolving Curriculum in Interpreter and Translator Education Stakeholder perspectives and voices examines forces driving curriculum design implementation and reform in academic programs that prepare interpreters and translators for employment in the public and private sectors The evolution of the translating and interpreting professions and changes in teaching practices in higher education have led to fundamental shifts in how translating and interpreting knowledge skills and abilities are acquired in academic settings Changing conceptualizations of curricula processes of innovation and reform technology refinement of teaching methodologies specific to translating and interpreting and the emergence of collaborative institutional networks are examples of developments shaping curricula Written by noted stakeholders from both employer organizations and academic programs in many regions of the world the timely and useful contributions in this comprehensive international volume describe the impact of such forces on the conceptual foundations and frameworks of interpreter and translator education

The Globalization of Internationalization Hans de Wit, Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila, Elspeth Jones, Nico Jooste, 2017-01-20 The Globalization of Internationalization is a timely text which gives voice to emerging perspectives as an increasing range of countries engage in the process of internationalization The pressure to internationalize cannot be ignored by institutions anywhere in today's world yet the dominant paradigms in the conception of internationalization traditionally come from the English speaking world and Western Europe This book sets out to offer alternative viewpoints Different dimensions and interpretations of internationalization in countries and regions whose perspectives have received little attention to date provide food for thought and help to broaden understanding of its application in alternative contexts Combining diverse perspectives from around the world this new volume in the Internationalization in Higher Education series seeks answers to key questions such as What are the main characteristics of internationalization viewed from different cultural and regional backgrounds and how do they differ from traditional models such as in Western Europe North America and Australasia What issues in different global contexts have an impact on internationalization processes What are the key challenges and obstacles encountered in developing innovative and non traditional models of internationalization With contributions from world renowned international authors and perspectives from countries and contexts seen only rarely in the literature The Globalization of Internationalization offers distinctive overviews and insights while exploring a range of thematic and regional issues arising from these considerations This will be essential reading both as an academic resource and a practical manual for university leaders academics higher education policy advisers and non governmental organizations which fund higher education Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2022 Alexander W. Wiseman, 2023-12-14

Reflecting on ten prolific years of publication both volumes of the 2022 Annual Review together present discussions on education trends and directions conceptual and methodological developments research to practice area studies and regional developments and diversification of the field of education The Universities We Need Stephen Heap, 2016-10-14

Increasing numbers of young adults go to university This book explores contemporary understandings of what universities are for what impact they might be having on their students and what visions of life and society are driving them It criticises a narrow view of higher education which focuses on serving the economy It argues that for the sake of the common and individual good universities need to be about forming citizens and societies as well as being an economic resource It does so in the light of theological perspectives mainly from the Christian but also from the Muslim faith and has a global as well as a

British perspective It brings together key thinkers in theology and higher education policy including Rowan Williams David Ford Mike Highton and Peter Scott to present a unique perspective on institutions which help shape the lives of millions

Snowden,2025-10-01 Just as higher education HE in Europe had its beginnings in religious training for the priesthood HE in feudal Japan too provided instruction for a religious life But while the evolution to secular instruction was gradual in Europe in Japan it came with a big bang the opening of the country and consequent Westernization and all that that involved in the mid 19th century This first volume in the new Japan Documents Handbook series tells the story in 25 chapters of how Japan s HE system has become what it is now ending with a very tentative glimpse into the rest of the 21st century A variety of themes are covered by scholars chapters that concentrate on governance look at the distinction between national public and private institutions others consider important topics such as internationalization student recruitment and faculty mobility More innovative topics include Women of Color Leading in Japanese Higher Education All provide copious references to other authorities but rather than just toe the conventional line they include opinions and proposals that may be contentious or even revolutionary The editor provides an overview of the subject and its treatment in an Introduction Higher Education in the High North Marit Sundet,Per-Anders Forstorp,Anders Örténblad,2017-06-08 This book focuses on how the Northern futures are transformed through regional cooperation in the Barents eduscape a study of the social cultural and political aspects of higher education and the exchanges of learning and people in the Euro Arctic Barents region especially between Norway and Russia Cultural exchange through higher education involving actors such as students and institutions is an integral part both of the Bologna process and of the policies currently changing higher education It is also a process of social and cultural change of which we have limited knowledge Cultural exchange is learned implemented and performed by the actors who are involved from the highest political level to the grassroots and the students themselves Available knowledge of these macro and micro processes of cultural exchange is largely fragmented and distinctly framed in national and or disciplinary i e pedagogical contexts In order to understand the transformative potentials of higher education and cultural exchange this book focuses on the social cultural and political aspects of the transformations of the futures in the North This book shows that educational cooperation between Norway and Russia is possible but also that the existing practices are extremely vulnerable to changes seen through micro theoretical perspectives By developing new theories which bind major theories international political decisions methodological procedures and contextual descriptions together this book is a first step in the direction of institutionalizing educational cooperation between the various and different academic societies cultures and political systems Internationalization and the North American University Library Karen Bordonaro,2013-08-08 This book offers a fresh perspective on understanding university library work with international users in North America It investigates what librarians international students and international scholars perceive the role of the university library to be in internationalization in higher education It also explores the phenomenon of internationalization itself as it is lived and experienced by both librarians and international users Personal definitions and experiences of internationalization offered by librarians and international users include viewing internationalization as the broadening of knowledge on multiple levels the idea of seeing oneself as part of a greater whole and the building of international research connections Both librarians and international users describe elements of internationalization such as exposure awareness engagement empathy and transcending boundaries Inherent contradictions are present as well such as the stronger emphasis on defining differences rather than similarities and the disconnect between inward and outward looking aspects of internationalization Finally this book connects theoretical perspectives concerning the phenomenon of internationalization to the practice of academic librarianship in North America It does this by presenting what librarians in both the United States and Canada think about working with international users in terms of benefits challenges and best practices Practical lessons learned include the need to move beyond focusing solely on the linguistic and cultural challenges of working with international users to also consider the positive aspects of working with them such as widening worldviews and expanding personal knowledge
