Mapping Appetite Pere Gallardo-Torrano, Jopi Nyman, 2009-03-26 As recent years have witnessed a strong interest in the cultural representation of the culinary ranging from analyses of food representation in film and literature to cultural readings of recipes menus national cuisines and celebrity chefs the study of food narratives amidst contemporary consumer culture has become increasingly more important This book seeks to respond to the challenge by presenting a series of case studies dealing with the representation of food and the culinary in a variety of cultural texts including post colonial and popular fiction women s magazines and food writing The contributors to the first part of the volume explore the various functions of food in post colonial writing ranging from Salman Rushdie and Anita Desai to Zadie Smith and Maggie Gee in the context of globalization and multiculturalism In the second part of the volume the focus is on two genres of popular fiction the romantic novel and science fiction While the romantic novels of Joanne Harris for instance link food and cooking with female empowerment in science fiction food is connected with power and technology The essays in the third part of the book explore the role of food in travel writing women s magazines and African American cookery books showing how issues of gender nation and race are present in food narratives

The Life of a Painter Gino Severini, 1995 In 1906 the Italian futurist painter Gino Severini arrived in Paris with no money no name and very few acquaintances only to become a key protagonist in the artistic and literary circles that would spearhead the modernist movement His autobiography from this period translated for the first time into English tells the story of the Parisian art world he knew so well and offers a unique account of the individuals and ideas that created modernism Here we encounter painters and sculptors such as Matisse Picasso Modigliani Braque Gris Dufy L ger Delaunay Duchamp Lipchitz and De Chirico the literary figures Marinetti Paul Fort Apollinaire Cocteau Reverdy and Jarry and also the philosopher and writer Maritain composers Eric Satie and Igor Stravinsky and the impresario of the Ballets Russes Sergei Diaghilev Severini shared their experiences in the studios galleries and caf s of Montmartre and Montparnasse and re creates the passionate debates that animated those gatherings We witness not only the maturing of Severini s art and aesthetic theory but also the intellectual and political turbulence that brought forth a wealth of approaches to art in the first two decades of this century including futurism cubism surrealism constructivism dadaism and metaphysical painting Beginning with an honest humorous description of his financially ill fated family in Tuscany Severini goes on to describe the triumphs and mistakes of his adolescence in the Roman art scene where he fraternized with Balla and Boccioni His down to earth tone pervades his anecdotes and assessments of the Parisian art world enabling a casual reader to grasp the many issues at stake As Severini s status as an important painter gains widespread recognition this autobiography serves as a valuable resource for critics and a thoroughly delightful engaging account for anyone interested in learning more about this artist who sheds new light on many of the crucial movements of the century
