Religions, Loe Joo Tan, 2018-09-15 Will the followers of other religions who have not heard of the gospel be saved Since the Second Vatican Council the Catholic church has been grappling with this question culminating in a recent document Dominus Iesus in 2000 In the post DI climate the British theologian Gavin D Costa has been described as a representative post DI theologian of religions And with good reason since other theologians such as Jacques Dupuis whose work along the lines of neo Rahnerianism have been curtailed by DI D Costa s work has spanned the past three decades and is aimed at developing a theology that echoes developments within the Catholic church s efforts to grapple with the existence of other religions In doing so he has appropriated the doctrine of the Trinity by reasoning it provides the very resources for interacting with Others and developed a form of Trinitarian inclusivism Based on the work of patristic theologians such as Lewis Ayres and Michel Barnes and their conception of a Pro Nicene theological matrix this book is an attempt to assess whether D Costa s utilization of trinitarian resources for contemporary concerns is faithful to the tradition The book concludes that while there is much to commend in D Costa s system there remain some features not fully consonant with classical Trinitarianism

Christianity and Religious Plurality Wilbert R. Shenk, Richard J. Plantinga, 2016-10-11 Over the past two centuries the Christian faith has spread to all continents Although more global than ever Christians are religious minorities in most societies Religious freedom is hardly universal In the past fifty years millions of people have been uprooted from their traditional homelands in Asia Africa and Latin America Some have emigrated to Western Europe and North America The West has become the scene of cultural linguistic and religious variety on a scale unimagined in 1900 Today the full range of faiths and religious practices from all continents are present in Europe and North America Christians are challenged to come to terms with this changed situation These developments have intensified religious plurality Christians all over the world are being urged to understand and engage with this new situation This volume highlights this new reality and specifies some sources for engagement not least among them the Judeo Christian scriptures fundamental to all Christianities that emerged out of religious plural contexts On the basis of their faith in the Triune God disclosed in this text all followers of Jesus Christ must interact with these opportunities in today s radically context sensitive world

The Pluralism of Paul Knitter and the Pluralistic Inclusivism of Jacques Dupuis James Shyamol Gomes, 2010 Acknowledging the contemporary challenges of religious pluralism this study emerges from the following new situations and the experiences of the diversity of religions and cultures There has been renewed discussion on Christianity s relation to other religious traditions We cannot deny also the transforming effect of Vatican II and the renewed importance of the presence of truth and holiness in other faiths In this situation the manyness of religious ways at the Christian doorsteps and theologians are seeking how to make sense of these other religious paths The place and role of Christianity in the midst of many religious ways demand serious Christian commitment and renewed theological reflection This study is inspired by the publications of Paul Knitter s pluralism and Jacques Dupuis inclusive pluralism to continue to wrestle with the question of God s one saving plan for all and Christianity s relation with religious others They are calling for a greater sensitivity toward an urgent attention to and a serious dialogue with the diverse religious and cultural realities of Asia or other parts of the world The author shows that Knitter develops a theology of religious form the pluralist position 1 a move away from insistence on the superiority or finality of Christ and Christianity and 2 toward a recognition of the independent validity of other religious ways By contrast Dupuis pluralistic inclusivism upholds both 1 the universal constitutive character of the Jesus Christ event in the order of salvation and 2 the positive saving significance of the religious within the single manifold plan of God for humankind
