Grasso, 2019-05-06 Maria R Grasso s monograph on the twelfth century illustrated vita of Saint Amand Valenciennes Biblioth que municipale MS 500 presents new information regarding its contents The author s discovery and analysis of a second almost complete set of preliminary drawings beneath another set of the same drawings demonstrates that important alterations were made prior to the execution of the cycle Grasso s discussion includes the probable reason for the change the isolation of the terminating folio depicting the soul of Amand This important devotional image is the focus of detailed analysis since the soul of Amand rests in the lap of a male figure she convincingly identifies as Christ an extremely unusual placement for the soul of a saint demonstrating the creativity of the artists

"Faith, Gender and the Senses in Italian Renaissance and Baroque Art " Erin E. Benay, 2017-07-05 Taking the Noli me tangere and Doubting Thomas episodes as a focal point this study examines how visual representations of two of the most compelling and related Christian stories engaged with changing devotional and cultural ideals in Renaissance and Baroque Italy This book reconsiders depictions of the ambiguous encounter of Mary Magdalene and Christ in the garden John 20:11-19 known as the Noli me tangere and that of Christ s post Resurrection appearance to

Thomas John 20 24 29 the Doubting Thomas as manifestations of complex theological and art theoretical milieus By focusing on key artistic monuments of the Italian Renaissance and Baroque periods the authors demonstrate a relationship between the rise of skeptical philosophy and empirical science and the efficacy of the senses in the construction of belief Further the authors elucidate the differing representational strategies employed by artists to depict touch and the ways in which these strategies were shaped by gender social class and educational level Indeed over time St Thomas became an increasingly public and therefore masculine symbol of devotional verification juridical inquiry and empirical investigation while St Mary Magdalene provided a more private model for pious women celebrating mostly behind closed doors the privileged and active participation of women in the faith The authors rely on primary source material paintings sculptures religious tracts hagiography popular sermons and new documentary evidence By reuniting their visual examples with important often little known textual sources the authors reveal a complex relationship between visual imagery the senses contemporary attitudes toward gender and the shaping of belief Further they add greater nuance to our understanding of the relationship between popular piety and the visual culture of the period

The St Albans Psalter Jane Geddes, 2005 The St Albans Psalter made in the 1130s is one of the great monuments of English Romanesque painting and has survived the disasters of religious upheaval and war in pristine condition The sequence of forty full page miniatures illustrating the Life of Christ establishes their artist the so called Alexis Master as one of the most influential painters in early twelfth century England It includes 215 initials illustrating the psalms in a vigorously literal way Their inventiveness and charm belie the complex theological and personal messages which they convey This new book by Dr Jane Geddes is the first to reproduce so much of the psalter in color but it also fully integrates the psalter's contents into the historical context of its probable patron Abbot Geoffrey of St Albans and its recipient the Anglo Saxon hermitess Christina of Markyate Using a record of Christina's life written by a St Albans monk the book examines in depth every aspect of the psalter tying it in closely to the lives of Christina of Markyate and Abbot Geoffrey Through her close analysis Geddes provides a profound insight into female literacy Anglo Norman relations the organization of England's premier scriptorium monk nun relations and the emerging Anglo Norman language This new book demonstrates the significance of the St Albans Psalter which in social terms is as important as the Bayeux Tapestry crystallising the artistic spiritual and emotional integration of Anglo Saxons and Normans

The St. Albans Psalter Kristine Edmondson Haney, 2002 The St Albans Psalter c 1125 1135 is generally regarded as the earliest surviving masterpiece of Anglo Norman painting Its extensive picture cycle includes over 200 historiated initials accompanying the psalms and prayers This book focuses on these initials examining their relationship to the text the sources upon which they draw the design process the messages encoded into them and the ways they would have been read by a contemporary audience Addressing these issues sheds new light on the development of Anglo Norman art the role of major Benedictine foundations in this process and the ways these houses reached out not only to those within their communities but also to the
