A Righte Merrie Christmase: The Story of Christ-Tide John Ashton, 1968-01-01 The day on which Jesus Christ died is plainly distinguishable but the day of His birth is open to very much question and literally is only conjectural so that the 25th December must be taken purely as the day on which His birth is celebrated and not as His absolute natal day In this matter we can only follow the traditions of the Church and tradition alone has little value In the second and early third centuries of our ra we only know that the festivals other than Sundays and days set apart for the remembrance of particular martyrs were the Passover Pentecost and the Epiphany the baptism or manifestation of our Lord when came a voice from Heaven saying This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased This seems always to have been fixed for the 6th of January and with it was incorporated the commemoration of His birth Titus Flavius Clemens generally known as Clemens of Alexandria lived exactly at this time and was a contemporary of Origen He speaks plainly on the subject and shows the uncertainty even at that early epoch of Christianity of fixing the date There are those who with an over busy curiosity attempt to fix not only the year but the date of our Saviour s birth who they say was born in the twenty eighth year of Augustus on the 25th of the month Pachon i e the 20th of May And in another place he says Some say that He was born on the 24th or 25th of the month Pharmuthi which would be the 19th or 20th of April
