

The Story of My Life

HELEN KELLER

When she was 19 months old, Helen Keller (1880–1968) suffered a severe illness that left her blind and deaf. Not long after, she also became mute. Her remarkable struggle to overcome these handicaps—with the help of her inspired teacher, Anne Sullivan—is one of the great stories of human courage and dedication.

In this classic autobiography, first published in 1903, Helen Keller recounts the first 22 years of her life, including the magical moment at the water pump when, recognizing the connection between the word “water” and the cold liquid flowing over her hand, she mastered the elusive hand signs. Subsequent experiments were equally noteworthy: her joy at eventually learning to speak, her friendships with Oliver Wendell Holmes, Edward Everett Hale and other notable, her education at Radcliffe College which she graduated cum laude, and—underlying all—her extraordinary relationship with Miss Sullivan, who showed a remarkable genius for communicating with her eager and spirit-filled young pupil.

These and many other aspects of Helen Keller's life are presented here in clear, straightforward prose full of wonderful descriptions and imagery that would do credit to a skilled writer. Completely devoted and selfless, yet full of love and compassion for others, this deeply moving memoir offers an unforgettable portrait of one of the outstanding women of the twentieth century.
