The Story Of The Mansfield Transit Systems:

The Story of the Mansfield Transit Systems ,198? The Lake Shore Electric Railway Story Herbert H. Harwood, Jr., Robert S. Korach, 2015-09-14 From 1901 to 1938 the Lake Shore Electric claimed to be and was considered by many The Greatest Electric Railway in the United States It followed the shore of Lake Erie connecting Cleveland and Toledo with a high speed limited stop service and pioneered a form of intermodal transportation three decades before the rest of the industry To millions of people the bright orange electric cars were an economical and comfortable means of escaping the urban mills and shops or the humdrum of rural life In summers during the glory years there were never enough cars to handle the crowds After reaching its peak in the early 1920s however the Lake Shore Electric suffered the fate of most of its sister lines it was now competing with automobiles trucks and buses and could not rival them in convenience The Lake Shore Electric Railway Story tells the story of this fascinating chapter in interurban transportation including the missed opportunities that might have saved this railway From Small Town to Downtown Lawrence A. Brough, James H. Graebner, 2004-04-06 The Jewett Car Company was born in the heyday of the electric railway boom in the 1890s The company gained an excellent reputation for its elegant well built wooden cars for street railway companies interurban lines and rapid transit service Cities large and small used Jewett cars including New York Boston Chicago and San Francisco Many Jewett cars found their way to Indiana and many of the interurban lines employed the graceful arch windowed wood interurban that Jewett was famous for Automobile competition and the problems of competing with much larger car builders such as J G Brill and the St Louis Car Company signaled the beginning of the end The company was offered the opportunity to produce munitions for World War I but refused The reason the major source of finance for Jewett was a German nationalist banker from Wheeling West Virginia who refused to have the company do anything to harm Germany As a direct result of that action the Jewett Car Company failed Historic Mansfield Scott Schaut, 2010 A Bicentennial History will tell the story of our city as we mark our 200th year The book will contrast the old and the new and relate the great transition from heavy manufacturing to a service economy including retailing education and healthcare Responses to the Proposed Rapid Transit System for Los Angeles County California.
