The Structure of Lutheranism Werner Elert, 1962 A History of Lutheranism Eric W. Gritsch, In a clear nontechnical way this noted Reformation historian tells the story of how the nascent reforming and confessional movement sparked and led by Martin Luther survived its first battles with religious and political authorities to become institutionalized in its religious practices and teachings Gritsch then traces the emergence of genuine consensus at the end of the sixteenth century followed by the age of Lutheran Orthodoxy the great Pietist reaction Lutheranism's growing diversification during the Industrial Revolution its North American expansion and its increasingly global and ecumenical ventures in the last century

These Are Written Peter Nafzger, 2013-05-31 Today there is an increasing awareness and availability of the sacred writings of the world's religions This raises important questions about the Christian Scriptures What is distinctive about these writings What role do they play in the Christian story What makes these particular texts holy The modern battle for the Bible with its narrow focus on proving or disproving biblical inerrancy has made it difficult to provide sufficient answers This work of constructive theology rethinks the concepts categories and assumptions that have dominated the modern approach to the Bible by returning to the biblical narrative and its focus on the cross It identifies the Scriptures as the written form of the living and active Word of God which was spoken by the prophets and apostles and became human in the person of Jesus Christ This conception of the Bible provides Christians in this postmodern world with a solid ground from which to address pressing questions about canon authority and interpretation of their Scriptures Sixteenth-Century Mission (Studies in Historical and Systematic Theology) Robert L. Gallagher, Edward L. Smither, 2021-04-07 A diverse cast of contributors explore the wide reaching practice and theology of mission during this era Rather than a century bereft of cross cultural outreach we find both Reformers and Roman Catholics preaching the gospel and establishing the church in all the world This overlooked yet rich history reveals themes and insights relevant to the practice of mission today Book cover The Lutheran

Statistical Yearbook Lutheran Church--Missouri Synod, 1962 Luther's Theology of the Cross Dennis Ngien, 2018-06-11 Luther was fundamentally a preacher pastor a care taker of souls whose ingenuity lies in his usage of the biblical message as a source of pastoral encouragement This book seeks to capture the often overlooked pastoral side of the Reformer through an examination of his sermons on John's gospel The sermons on John show the intrinsic close and causal link between doctrine and consolation They are an exercise of his vocation as a pastor or more precisely as a theologian of the cross who seeks to inculcate the good news of justification by faith in his people leading them to experience it within the dialectic of law and gospel St John said Luther is the master in the article of justification Luther's theological method namely his theology of the cross permeates and governs the exposition of the text and all major themes of his theology Christology Trinity and soteriology appear in his exegesis of John Theology of the Old Testament Walter Brueggemann, 2012-06-01 In this powerful book Walter Brueggemann moves the discussion of Old Testament theology beyond the dominant models of previous generations Brueggemann focuses on the metaphor and imagery of the courtroom trial in order to regard the theological substance of the Old Testament as a series of claims asserted for Yahweh the God of Israel This provides a context that attends to pluralism in every dimension of the interpretive process and suggests links to the plurality of voices of our time The New International Year Book Frank Moore Colby, Allen Leon Churchill, Herbert Treadwell Wade, Frank H. Vizetelly, 1929 The Church in Act Maxwell E. Johnson, 2015-04-01 The Church in Act explores the dynamics of ecclesial

Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century

Covenant Theology Guy Prentiss Waters, J. Nicholas Reid, John R. Muether, 2020-10-16 A Comprehensive Exploration of the Biblical Covenants This book forms an overview of the biblical teaching on covenant as well as the practical significance of covenant for the Christian life A host of 26 scholars shows how covenant is not only clearly taught from Scripture but also that it lays the foundation for other key doctrines of salvation The contributors who engage variously in biblical systematic and historical theology present covenant theology not as a theological abstract imposed on the Bible but as a doctrine that is organically presented throughout the biblical narrative As students pastors and church leaders come to see the centrality of covenant to the

Christian faith the more the church will be strengthened with faith in the covenant keeping God and encouraged in their understanding of the joy of covenant life
