Building a Republican Nation in Vietnam, 1920-1963 Nu-Anh Tran, Tuong Vu, 2022-12-31 Western observers have long considered communism to be synonymous with Vietnam's modern historical experience. Eager to make sense of the North Vietnamese victory in the Vietnam War, scholars and journalists have spilled much ink on the history of Vietnamese communists. But this preoccupation has obscured the diversity of ideas and experiences that defined Vietnam in the twentieth century in which communism represented just one of many tendencies. Building a Republican Nation in Vietnam 1920-1963 posits that republicanism shaped modern Vietnam no less profoundly than communism. Republicans championed representative government, the universal rights of man, civil liberties, and the primacy of the nation. These ideas infused the thinking of Vietnamese reformers, dissidents, and revolutionaries from the 1900s onward, including many men and women who went on to lead the struggle for independence. Republicanism was also one of the chief inspirations for the establishment of the Republic of Vietnam, also known as South Vietnam, in 1955. This interdisciplinary volume brings together eleven essays by historians, political scientists, literary scholars, and sociologists who make use of fresh sources to study the development of republicanism from the colonial period to the First Republic of Vietnam, 1955-1963. The introduction by coeditors Nu Anh Tran and Tuong Vu critically analyzes the existing scholarship on the First Republic, explains how the concept of republicanism can illuminate developments in the Saigon-based state, and situates the regime in a comparative context with South Korea. Peter Zinoman's chapter reviews the historiography on republicanism and modern Vietnam and heralds the arrival of the republican moment in the field of Vietnam studies. Several chapters by Nguyen L ng H i Kh i, Martina Thucnhi Nguyen, and Yen Vu examine the transformation of republican ideas. Nu Anh Tran and Duy Lap Nguyen explore competing concepts of democracy and the factional politics of the First Republic. The essays by Jason Picard, Cindy Nguyen, Ho ng Phong Tu n, Nguy n Th Minh, and Y Thien Nguyen analyze nation and state building efforts in the 1950s and 1960s. Collectively, the essays give voice to Vietnamese republicans, from the ideas they espoused to the institutions they built and the legacies they left behind.

The Psychology of Sympathy Lauren Wispé, 2013-03-09 The origins of this book probably go back to Gordon Allport's seminar in social psychology at Harvard during the late 1940s and to the invitation from Gardner Lindzey some years later to contribute a section on Sympathy and Empathy to the International Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences, 1968. Since those early beginnings, the book has been in the process of becoming. During that time, I have benefited greatly from the knowledge and assistance of many colleagues, especially the following who read and commented upon portions of the manuscript: Raymond Gastil, the late Joseph Katz, David McClelland, Jitendra Mohanty, Paul Mussen, Richard Solomon, and Bernard Weiner. To Kenneth Merrill for a close reading of the Hume material and to M. Brewster Smith for a careful reading of and suggestions on Chapters 7 and 8, I am especially indebted. Beverly Joyce withstood constant interruptions to provide much-needed library assistance and Vivian Wheeler gave generously of her excellent editorial experience and knowledge A fellowship at the Battelle Research Center in Seattle and an appointment as a visiting scholar at Harvard were of incalculable help providing opportunity stimulation and freedom from teaching responsibilities To all of the above I am deeply indebted Just a few words about the organization of this book

Liberating Our Imaginations David Janzen,2025-07-15 If we want to read the Bible as a resource for liberative fights against systemic oppression how can we learn to interpret it differently Liberating Our Imaginations presents an answer David Janzen demonstrates the possibilities for liberation produced by reading biblical texts alongside works of contemporary literature by minoritized authors While contemporary examples of oppression are not identical the process of reading ancient and contemporary texts together can nonetheless open up imaginative and liberative interpretations of biblical texts This approach allows people from any community to use the Bible as a resource in different struggles against oppression

Fictive Fathers in the Contemporary American Novel Debra Shostak,2020-02-20 Fictive Fathers in the Contemporary American Novel explores the unstable construction of heteronormative white masculinity in the contemporary United States by focusing on relationships between fathers and their children Debra Shostak reads the novels of 18 North American writers publishing in the late 20th and early 21st centuries as allegories of cultural conflict and change within the nuclear family the authors considered include Paul Auster Don DeLillo Jeffrey Eugenides Jonathan Safran Foer Jonathan Franzen John Irving Jonathan Lethem Carole Maso Bobbie Ann Mason Cormac McCarthy Claire Messud Viet Thanh Nguyen Tim O'Brien Marilynne Robinson Philip Roth Mona Simpson Jane Smiley and Anne Tyler These novelists portray father figures who often literally or figuratively absent from the family scene disrupt the familial order and their family members identities Shostak's close readings illuminate unexpectedly conservative even subversive ideological positions at the heart of these fictions Fictive Fathers traces the eroding myth of paternal authority that sustained a patriarchal model within real American families and their literary representations
