Joutras, 2019-05-12 In October of 1975 Jeff Joutras was pulled out of his freshman religion class at Providence Catholic High School to hear the devastating news his father had tragically died in an workplace explosion and fire at Union Oil's refinery leaving his wife and seven children behind Jeff's moving account tells how the grief of the loss followed him for decades through his career and through his own journey as a father of five the loss ultimately manifesting in a depression that he hid for years After dwelling on the loss Jeff overcame his fear and pride and finally reached out for help In the process he found a new perspective on life death and living on this side of eternity My Dad's Rose will resonate with anyone who has struggled with the loss of a loved one Through his personal recounting practical advice on dealing with dark thoughts and confronting the mysteries and metaphors of faith Jeff shows how our greatest hardships can make us stronger From Behind The Stick Marcos Carvajal, 2019-01-17 When God gives you a talent are you using that talent to help further his kingdom or are you using those talents for personal pleasure or gains

This is the question that was asked of me I most definitely wasn't living to spread the good news I was blessed with the ability to play Pocket Billiards and was taught how to hustle people from a young age by my grandfather I had already developed a small gambling addiction before I learned of this talent However the lessons that I have learned during years of playing this magnificent game have helped God reveal himself to me I finally could understand that Satan had been taking advantage of my youth and lack of wisdom from an early age to keep me from my salvation I tell this story to explain to my own children how wonderful God's grace is in our life and hopefully will inspire others to release any strongholds that Satan has on their own lives
