an electrifying presence in contemporary fiction Andr Aciman author of Call Me by Your Name and Find Me Every summer Teresa follows her father to his childhood home in Puglia down in the heel of Italy a land of relentless shimmering heat centuries old olive groves and families who have lived there for generations She spends long afternoons enveloped in a sunstruck stupor reading her grandmother s paperbacks Everything changes the summer she meets the three boys who live on the farm next door Nicola Tommaso and Bern the man Teresa will love for the rest of her life Raised like brothers on a farm that feels to Teresa almost suspended in time the three boys share a complex intimate and seemingly unassailable bond But no bond is unbreakable and no summer truly endless as Teresa soon discovers Because there is resentment underneath the surface of that strange brotherhood a twisted kind of love that protects a dark secret And when Bern the enigmatic restless gravitational center of the group commits a brutal act of revenge not even a final pilgrimage to the edge of the world will be enough to bring back those perfect golden hours in the shadow of the olive trees An unforgettable story of enduring love the bonds between men and the all too human search for meaning Heaven and Earth is Paolo Giordano at his best an author capable of unveiling the depths of the human soul who has now given us the old fashioned pleasure of a big sprawling novel in which to lose ourselves

Deceptive Fictions Ulrike Tancke, 2015-06-18 Deceptive Fictions Narrating Trauma and Violence in Contemporary Writing explores the widespread narrative concern with trauma and violence and their interactions with identity meaning ethics history memory and various other related issues in a selection of novels by prolific contemporary British and Irish writers Interrogating the strategic functions of trauma and violence the book argues that these texts can be read as counter narratives to or a backlash against still prevalent critical paradigms informed by poststructuralist and postmodern thought Trauma and violence are invoked as narrative tools to communicate the centrality of the body and of biological and material constraints on human actions This emphasis on reality and the experiential ties in with the novels consistent focus on the individual as an ethical agent and originator of meaning In so doing they signal a move in contemporary fiction towards a textual practice that can most fruitfully be approached along the lines of an individualistic evolutionary corporeal and experiential narratology which self consciously reflects on the manipulative potentials of narrative
