The Speechwriter A Brief Education In Politics:

The Speechwriter Barton Swaim, 2015-07-14 Barton Swaim was struggling to find an academic job he d recently received a PhD in English when he sent his resume to Mark Sanford the conservative and controversial governor of South Carolina He thought he could improve the governor s writing and speeches On the surface this is the story of Sanford s rise and fall But it s really an account of what happens when a band of believers attach themselves to an ambitious narcissist Everyone knows this kind of politician a charismatic maverick who goes up against the system and its ways but thinks he doesn t have to live by the rules Swaim describes what makes people invest in their leaders how those leaders do provide moments of inspiration and then how they let them down The Speechwriter is a funny and candid introduction to the world of politics where press statements are purposefully nonsensical grammatical errors are intentional and better copy means more words Through his three years in the governor s office Swaim paints a portrait of a man so principled he d rather sweat than use state money to pay for air conditioning so oblivious he d wear the same stained shirt for two weeks so egotistical he d belittle his staffers to make himself feel better and so self absorbed he never once apologized for making his administration the laughing stock of the country In the end it s also an account of the very human staffers who risk a life in politics out of conviction and learn to survive a broken heart

Doubletalk Chuck McCutcheon, David Mark, 2016-02-02 The only time most Americans care anything about politics is during the presidential election cycle This quadrennial flood of posturing and blame once confined to the July conventions and the November election has spread like a greasy lake across the landscape and calendar of our politics From the first exploratory rumblings of the hopefuls sometime after the midterm elections to the tsunami of Super

Tuesday the political language of the presidential election has become a reflecting pool of our polity Doubletalk casts a warm ray of sunlight on the campaign trail as an add on to last year's Dog Whistles Walk backs and Washington Handshakes with over 100 new terms phrases and epithets combining wit humor truth and dubious taste and propriety Tales from the Crib DeeDee Filiatreault, 2016-11-01 Tales from the Crib will make all parental units feel better about themselves no vegetables required Let's be honest Nobody wants to sit next to that chipper mom at playgroup who knows everything Please You want to plop down by the mom who's just as clueless and cranky as you are and have a good hearty conspiratorial laugh together Because that mom gets it That mom makes you feel better That mom isn't afraid to admit that chicken nuggets are one of her household's major food groups though she is fraught with guilt over it That mom is just like you That mom is DeeDee Filiatreault a regular housewife with fairly normal kids if there is such a thing But unlike you she writes all her ridiculous family stuff down for her newspaper column and blog with wit snark heart faith and far fewer swear words than she's probably thinking Her writings have yet to appear in the New Yorker or HuffPo she doesn't go on morning shows to dole out parenting advice mainly because she doesn't really have any and she doesn't have a weird new hook for a memoir like how she survived a year of family dumpster diving or co-parenting her children with wolves She doesn't have eighteen kids either just two And oh yeah only one husband as required by state law This collection of DeeDee's favorite columns and writings spans her first near decade in the mom business Reading it is like plunking down next to that funny mom at playgroup You'll laugh You'll cry You'll feel less lonely in this thing And you may even feel a little superior That alone might be worth the price tag Just come and sit down next to her The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Canadian Edition

Rooted Leadership John Johnson, 2022-06-14 Behind many of the challenges facing us today is a failure of leadership This is not a new problem Yearning for wise guidance and effective authority is a perennial human longing We need leaders who are credible competent and committed But many leaders seem to be caught up even consumed with their own power and agendas Some see the leadership crisis as an intellectual problem believing we lack a clear theory of leadership Others view the breakdown of leadership as a result of increasing deficiency in moral character Most leadership books today revolve around the concepts of motivation inspiration empowerment and teamwork Helpful as these themes might be they miss something more fundamental Leadership needs a theological foundation that will be useful for shaping the undergirding principles and evaluating current leadership theories and practices We need to view leadership from the vantage point of God In Rooted Leadership John E Johnson explores how Christian theology provides an overarching leadership framework and applies that theory to leadership practices Spiritual reflection guided by scripture points us to the very center of leadership God and the purpose of leadership that we might display his glory All the best forms of leading take their cues from who God is his purposes and his ways of working with people that he has progressively revealed Building on three decades of research study and experience as a global leader Johnson surveys the landscape of contemporary leadership theory unpacks the assumptions and beliefs that underly current trends and responds by offering a robust approach to leadership founded on the character work and words of God

 If journalism is the first draft of history it is equally important to see how the work stands the test of time If the writing isn't prescient and perspicacious it doesn't meet that test This collection of columns and articles by L. Ian MacDonald a sequel to Politics People Potpourri meets that test Much has happened in the politics of Canada and Quebec as well as to the leaders who have defined and shaped the first two decades of the twenty-first century since the first collection was published in 2009 The successful election campaigns of Harper and Trudeau form the political bookends of the present decade in Canada and the opening chapters of the book Between these governments there are the events personalities and issues that have shaped the political narrative and policy debate from fiscal frameworks to clean energy and pipelines from the Senate expense scandal and democratic reform to national security at home and the mission against ISIS abroad In his columns and longer pieces from Policy Options and Policy magazines MacDonald provides clear-minded commentary on political issues salient to all Canadians including the election of Donald Trump in the United States He also profiles a diverse group of political figures and writes moving tributes to departed nationally respected figures such as Jean B. Lévesque Jim Flaherty Jack Layton and Tom Van Dusen This intelligent and entertaining collection presents MacDonald at his best and offers a captivating view of Canadian politics and life The Quarterly Journal of Speech Education, 1921 Encyclopedia of Careers and Vocational Guidance: Career articles, PHY-Z, 2011 Provides detailed facts and current statistics for over 750 occupations in more than 90 key career fields Contains more than 500 photographs Education and Democracy Adam R. Allan Taylor, James Robert Parish, 2009 Provides information on salaries skill requirements and employment opportunities for ninety writing and writing-related professions Covering American Politics in the 21st Century Lee Banville, 2016-12-12 This encyclopedia provides a real-world guide to American political journalism and news coverage in the 21st century from the most influential media organizations and pundits to the controversies and practices shaping modern-day political journalism Over the last 20 years political campaigns and the media that cover them have been fundamentally altered by a mix of technology and money This timely work surveys the legal financial and technological changes that have swept through the political process putting those changes in context to help readers appreciate how they affect what the public learns and doesn't learn about the candidates and lawmakers at the local state and federal levels The encyclopedia offers a critical examination of a broad range of topics organized in a narrative A to Z format Written by journalists and political experts the two volumes cover the major issues organizations and trends affecting both politics and the coverage of
